

For the Proprietor of HONGKONG TELEGRAPH,
For and on behalf of
SOUTH CHINA MORNING POST, LTD.
W. H. K. Chan
Printer & Publisher

The Hongkong Telegraph

Today's Weather: Moderate northeasterly winds. Partly cloudy with haze and sea fog in approaches.
Noon Observations: Barometric pressure, 1013.7 mbs., 29.94 in. Temperature, 72.8 deg. F. Dew point, 67 deg. F. Relative humidity, 82%. Wind direction, W by N. Wind force, 4 knots.
High water: 6 ft. 8 in. at 6.19 p.m. Low water: 1 ft. 3 in. at 2.32 a.m. (Tuesday).

Dine
At the

P. G.

For Reservations

Tel: 27880

VOL. V NO. 25

MONDAY, JANUARY 30, 1950.

Price 20 Cents

DEATH SENTENCE PASSED ON TWO SABOTEUR-SPIES

Skopje, Jan. 29.—Two Bulgarians were sentenced today to death by shooting in a trial here of alleged spies and saboteurs from Sofia.

Two other defendants, of Yugoslav origin, were sentenced to eight and five years' imprisonment respectively. Four other Bulgarians were sentenced to terms of forced labour ranging from eight to 13 years.

RESCUE IN SIGHT

On Board the John Biscoe, Port Lockroy, Jan. 29.—Eleven British scientists marooned on Stonington Island, in the Antarctic, today saw the ice masses which held them captive for over two years breaking up as rescuers were moving in by ship and plane to take them out.

Dr. V. F. E. Foulkes, a geophysicist, said that the trapped group had expected that an attempt would be made to break through the ice barrier about two years ago, but that the attempt had failed.

Other members of the group joyfully announced that they had discovered a big crack in the ice covering the area where huge icebergs were blocking the way to the open sea.

News of the discovery was reported by the British Antarctic expedition, which is now in the area.

The expedition, which is led by Dr. Foulkes, is now in the area.

The expedition, which is led by Dr. Foulkes, is now in the area.

The expedition, which is led by Dr. Foulkes, is now in the area.

The expedition, which is led by Dr. Foulkes, is now in the area.

The expedition, which is led by Dr. Foulkes, is now in the area.

The expedition, which is led by Dr. Foulkes, is now in the area.

The expedition, which is led by Dr. Foulkes, is now in the area.

The expedition, which is led by Dr. Foulkes, is now in the area.

The expedition, which is led by Dr. Foulkes, is now in the area.

The expedition, which is led by Dr. Foulkes, is now in the area.

The expedition, which is led by Dr. Foulkes, is now in the area.

The expedition, which is led by Dr. Foulkes, is now in the area.

The expedition, which is led by Dr. Foulkes, is now in the area.

Has He Said Wrong Thing?

WINSTON CHURCHILL

Churchill Lets Fly At The Liberals

London, Jan. 29. In Parliamentary quarters today there was much speculation about the possible consequences of the speech by the Conservative leader, Mr. Winston Churchill, in his own Woodford (Essex) constituency last night.

Mr. Churchill, abandoning the caution and moderation which characterised his broadcast to the nation a week ago, assailed "the sorry and wanton machinations" of the Liberal Party.

He also spoke of the "wanton" and "wanton" machinations of the Liberal Party.

He also spoke of the "wanton" and "wanton" machinations of the Liberal Party.

He also spoke of the "wanton" and "wanton" machinations of the Liberal Party.

He also spoke of the "wanton" and "wanton" machinations of the Liberal Party.

He also spoke of the "wanton" and "wanton" machinations of the Liberal Party.

He also spoke of the "wanton" and "wanton" machinations of the Liberal Party.

He also spoke of the "wanton" and "wanton" machinations of the Liberal Party.

He also spoke of the "wanton" and "wanton" machinations of the Liberal Party.

He also spoke of the "wanton" and "wanton" machinations of the Liberal Party.

He also spoke of the "wanton" and "wanton" machinations of the Liberal Party.

He also spoke of the "wanton" and "wanton" machinations of the Liberal Party.

He also spoke of the "wanton" and "wanton" machinations of the Liberal Party.

He also spoke of the "wanton" and "wanton" machinations of the Liberal Party.

He also spoke of the "wanton" and "wanton" machinations of the Liberal Party.

He also spoke of the "wanton" and "wanton" machinations of the Liberal Party.

He also spoke of the "wanton" and "wanton" machinations of the Liberal Party.

He also spoke of the "wanton" and "wanton" machinations of the Liberal Party.

He also spoke of the "wanton" and "wanton" machinations of the Liberal Party.

SOVIET DOMINATION OF BULGARIA

Taking Over Economy, Lock, Stock And Barrel

NO TRADING WITHOUT PERMISSION

Belgrade, Jan. 29.—Soviet Russia is taking over Bulgarian economy lock, stock and barrel and deriving "huge profits" at the expense of her satellite, according to press reports published here in Yugoslavia.

Such information as is available from Western diplomatic sources tends to confirm the reports.

The Belgrade newspaper "Glas," organ of the Serbian People's Front, has alleged, for instance, that Bulgaria cannot act independently as regards foreign trade.

Some 80 percent of her exports, the newspaper said, go to the Soviet Union and Russia does not allow Bulgaria to trade with other countries without her permission.

According to "Glas," the Bulgarians have made several attempts to escape the Kremlin's eagle eye in this matter, but so far without success. The paper cited three examples:

1. In October, 1948, it is alleged, Bulgaria bought two shiploads of timber from Romania, intending to resell them in Turkey. One of the ships got through to Istanbul, but the other was stopped in the Black Sea by a Soviet naval patrol and ordered to return.

The reason given according to "Glas" was that Bulgaria wanted to resell timber she could sell at a profit in Russia who would sell it at a loss for her.

2. In January, 1949, Bulgaria agreed to deliver to the Soviet Union agricultural products, but according to "Glas," the Bulgarians refused to do so.

3. In January, 1949, Bulgaria agreed to deliver to the Soviet Union agricultural products, but according to "Glas," the Bulgarians refused to do so.

The Soviet Union, Bulgaria said, would deliver her goods to the Soviet Union in payment of her debts.

The Soviet Union, Bulgaria said, would deliver her goods to the Soviet Union in payment of her debts.

The Soviet Union, Bulgaria said, would deliver her goods to the Soviet Union in payment of her debts.

The Soviet Union, Bulgaria said, would deliver her goods to the Soviet Union in payment of her debts.

The Soviet Union, Bulgaria said, would deliver her goods to the Soviet Union in payment of her debts.

The Soviet Union, Bulgaria said, would deliver her goods to the Soviet Union in payment of her debts.

The Soviet Union, Bulgaria said, would deliver her goods to the Soviet Union in payment of her debts.

The Soviet Union, Bulgaria said, would deliver her goods to the Soviet Union in payment of her debts.

The Soviet Union, Bulgaria said, would deliver her goods to the Soviet Union in payment of her debts.

The Soviet Union, Bulgaria said, would deliver her goods to the Soviet Union in payment of her debts.

The Soviet Union, Bulgaria said, would deliver her goods to the Soviet Union in payment of her debts.

The Soviet Union, Bulgaria said, would deliver her goods to the Soviet Union in payment of her debts.

The Soviet Union, Bulgaria said, would deliver her goods to the Soviet Union in payment of her debts.

The Soviet Union, Bulgaria said, would deliver her goods to the Soviet Union in payment of her debts.

The Soviet Union, Bulgaria said, would deliver her goods to the Soviet Union in payment of her debts.

The Soviet Union, Bulgaria said, would deliver her goods to the Soviet Union in payment of her debts.

The Soviet Union, Bulgaria said, would deliver her goods to the Soviet Union in payment of her debts.

The Soviet Union, Bulgaria said, would deliver her goods to the Soviet Union in payment of her debts.

The Soviet Union, Bulgaria said, would deliver her goods to the Soviet Union in payment of her debts.

Two Years Of Freedom Ends

Algiers, Jan. 29.—After over two years of freedom following a successful prison break, Roger Lequet, 28, sentenced to death for murder in 1947, has been arrested by police near here, it was announced today.

Lequet escaped from the prison at Alencon, Western France, in September, 1947, with two other men, under sentence of death.

Lequet managed to reach North Africa while the others were arrested after a few days of freedom.

Lequet has appealed that his death sentence should be commuted.—Reuter.

Lequet has appealed that his death sentence should be commuted.—Reuter.

Lequet has appealed that his death sentence should be commuted.—Reuter.

Lequet has appealed that his death sentence should be commuted.—Reuter.

Lequet has appealed that his death sentence should be commuted.—Reuter.

Lequet has appealed that his death sentence should be commuted.—Reuter.

Lequet has appealed that his death sentence should be commuted.—Reuter.

Lequet has appealed that his death sentence should be commuted.—Reuter.

Lequet has appealed that his death sentence should be commuted.—Reuter.

Lequet has appealed that his death sentence should be commuted.—Reuter.

Lequet has appealed that his death sentence should be commuted.—Reuter.

Lequet has appealed that his death sentence should be commuted.—Reuter.

Lequet has appealed that his death sentence should be commuted.—Reuter.

Lequet has appealed that his death sentence should be commuted.—Reuter.

Lequet has appealed that his death sentence should be commuted.—Reuter.

Lequet has appealed that his death sentence should be commuted.—Reuter.

Lequet has appealed that his death sentence should be commuted.—Reuter.

Lequet has appealed that his death sentence should be commuted.—Reuter.

Lequet has appealed that his death sentence should be commuted.—Reuter.

Lequet has appealed that his death sentence should be commuted.—Reuter.

Lequet has appealed that his death sentence should be commuted.—Reuter.

Lequet has appealed that his death sentence should be commuted.—Reuter.

Lequet has appealed that his death sentence should be commuted.—Reuter.

Lequet has appealed that his death sentence should be commuted.—Reuter.

Lequet has appealed that his death sentence should be commuted.—Reuter.

Lequet has appealed that his death sentence should be commuted.—Reuter.

Lequet has appealed that his death sentence should be commuted.—Reuter.

Lequet has appealed that his death sentence should be commuted.—Reuter.

Subversive Movement Active In USSR

New York, Jan. 29.—Former United States Ambassador to Moscow, Lieutenant General Walter Bedell Smith, said today that a "fairly well organized underground" in Russia proved that the Communists "have not swept away all the vestiges of opposition behind the Iron Curtain."

He was speaking at an anti-Communist conference sponsored by the American Legion, which began yesterday.

General Smith, who also stated that the Communist Party in the United States received direct orders from Moscow, said: "There is a strong Maga movement in Lithuania due to the collectivization of agriculture."

Other anti-Soviet centres of opposition had developed in Latvia and the Ukraine, though Soviet police action had largely eliminated the Ukrainian group.

General Smith added that the underground organization made it possible for anti-Communists to cross through Soviet territory moving from one group to another.

There is a constant and direct chain of command from the Kremlin to Communist parties in other countries, General Smith said. "More than 200,000 Russians are ruled by a single political party which has less than six million members. This regime is cemented by secret police and nailed in place by bayonets."

Asked whether the Soviet Union directed the Communist Party in the United States, General Smith replied: "The evidence is profound and conclusive that that is the case. We also see examples of its in (Czechoslovakia and Poland.)"

"There is direct dictation and direct advice, and the evidence on that is indisputable," Reuter.

Other anti-Soviet centres of opposition had developed in Latvia and the Ukraine, though Soviet police action had largely eliminated the Ukrainian group.

General Smith added that the underground organization made it possible for anti-Communists to cross through Soviet territory moving from one group to another.

There is a constant and direct chain of command from the Kremlin to Communist parties in other countries, General Smith said. "More than 200,000 Russians are ruled by a single political party which has less than six million members. This regime is cemented by secret police and nailed in place by bayonets."

Asked whether the Soviet Union directed the Communist Party in the United States, General Smith replied: "The evidence is profound and conclusive that that is the case. We also see examples of its in (Czechoslovakia and Poland.)"

"There is direct dictation and direct advice, and the evidence on that is indisputable," Reuter.

Other anti-Soviet centres of opposition had developed in Latvia and the Ukraine, though Soviet police action had largely eliminated the Ukrainian group.

General Smith added that the underground organization made it possible for anti-Communists to cross through Soviet territory moving from one group to another.

There is a constant and direct chain of command from the Kremlin to Communist parties in other countries, General Smith said. "More than 200,000 Russians are ruled by a single political party which has less than six million members. This regime is cemented by secret police and nailed in place by bayonets."

Asked whether the Soviet Union directed the Communist Party in the United States, General Smith replied: "The evidence is profound and conclusive that that is the case. We also see examples of its in (Czechoslovakia and Poland.)"

"There is direct dictation and direct advice, and the evidence on that is indisputable," Reuter.

Other anti-Soviet centres of opposition had developed in Latvia and the Ukraine, though Soviet police action had largely eliminated the Ukrainian group.

General Smith added that the underground organization made it possible for anti-Communists to cross through Soviet territory moving from one group to another.

There is a constant and direct chain of command from the Kremlin to Communist parties in other countries, General Smith said. "More than 200,000 Russians are ruled by a single political party which has less than six million members. This regime is cemented by secret police and nailed in place by bayonets."

Asked whether the Soviet Union directed the Communist Party in the United States, General Smith replied: "The evidence is profound and conclusive that that is the case. We also see examples of its in (Czechoslovakia and Poland.)"

"There is direct dictation and direct advice, and the evidence on that is indisputable," Reuter.

Other anti-Soviet centres of opposition had developed in Latvia and the Ukraine, though Soviet police action had largely eliminated the Ukrainian group.

General Smith added that the underground organization made it possible for anti-Communists to cross through Soviet territory moving from one group to another.

There is a constant and direct chain of command from the Kremlin to Communist parties in other countries, General Smith said. "More than 200,000 Russians are ruled by a single political party which has less than six million members. This regime is cemented by secret police and nailed in place by bayonets."

Asked whether the Soviet Union directed the Communist Party in the United States, General Smith replied: "The evidence is profound and conclusive that that is the case. We also see examples of its in (Czechoslovakia and Poland.)"

"There is direct dictation and direct advice, and the evidence on that is indisputable," Reuter.

Other anti-Soviet centres of opposition had developed in Latvia and the Ukraine, though Soviet police action had largely eliminated the Ukrainian group.

EDITORIAL

Trivial Political Party

THE Communist Party of Great Britain has announced that it is going to put up a hundred candidates at the forthcoming election. It sounds almost impressive, and the little band of not very desperate men who lead the trivial Communist party in the country speak of this in their newspaper as a "titanic campaign." But Britain has nothing to fear from its band of Communists. On the contrary, the question that needs answering is why the Communist Party is so weak in a country that voted into power five years ago a Labour Government that declared itself bent on Socialism and had a programme that was by no means wishy-washy, or middle-of-the-road. Communism, for all that it has a newspaper and makes a disproportionate amount of noise, is a feeble political movement in Britain. Looked at from the Cominform angle, Mr. Harry Pollitt's "titanic campaign" must give the appearance of a house-to-house collection for charity. Just in time to answer some of the questions why Communism makes no impression on the average Briton, a group of six ex-Communists, not all of them English, have published a book of essays analysing why they could not stay Communists. The set of reasons put with great clarity by such European figures as Arthur Koestler and Ignazio Silone are of the kind that have most force with the British people. For instance, running through the six essays, is the same criticism of the irritating life of an intellectual who finds himself in the Communist Party and is absolutely forbidden to disagree with the pundits of the party on any matter whatever. It is true, of course, that any party in any country goes some way in this direction. Disagreements must be thrashed out in private and the party's unity maintained for the rest of the world to see. That goes for Socialists, or Conservatives, or Catholic parties, or Indian Congress, or Muslim League. In fact, no political party can stay in one piece unless it applies this principle. But the Communists carry it to extremes. The party has a peculiar relationship with the Soviet Union. It recruits independent-minded people who, when they enter the party, do it as a stroke of individualism to prove that they are thinking animals, and then they are compelled to accept the absolute rightness of every act of the Soviet Socialist Republic. One point that drives recruits to exasperation within a short time is the incidental fact that the Russian State has been throughout its history—and long before Communism—particularly casual about human misery and loss of human life. The Communist party of any country rates pity as bourgeois sentiment to be despised. Yet it recruits new members because thinking people are filled with pity for the suffering of their poorer neighbours and rush to Communism as a remedy. These are important reasons why the Communist party of Great Britain is so extraordinarily weak. It cannot muster many more than 30,000 members and it is doubtful whether one person in fifty will vote the Communist way at the coming General Election. It is very hard for a Communist party in Britain to fight against the strong instinct of "non-conformism"—a plain, stubborn instinct never to believe easily what you are told to believe. This is an instinct that dominates the British voter.

LIBERAL REPLIES

London, Jan. 29. Mr. Douglas Foot, former Liberal Minister, told the British wartime Coalition Government today answered Mr. Churchill's recent charge that Liberal candidates were splitting the anti-Socialist vote in the forthcoming General Elections.

"Mr. Churchill stated that the Liberal Party by splitting its votes may frustrate the will of the majority of the nation," Mr. Foot said.

"I would have supposed that the only frustrated voter was one who found himself deprived of the opportunity to support the party of his choice," he added.—Reuter.

"I would have supposed that the only frustrated voter was one who found himself deprived of the opportunity to support the party of his choice," he added.—Reuter.

"I would have supposed that the only frustrated voter was one who found himself deprived of the opportunity to support the party of his choice," he added.—Reuter.

"I would have supposed that the only frustrated voter was one who found himself deprived of the opportunity to support the party of his choice," he added.—Reuter.

"I would have supposed that the only frustrated voter was one who found himself deprived of the opportunity to support the party of his choice," he added.—Reuter.

"I would have supposed that the only frustrated voter was one who found himself deprived of the opportunity to support the party of his choice," he added.—Reuter.

"I would have supposed that the only frustrated voter was one who found himself deprived of the opportunity to support the party of his choice," he added.—Reuter.

"I would have supposed that the only frustrated voter was one who found himself deprived of the opportunity to support the party of his choice," he added.—Reuter.

"I would have supposed that the only frustrated voter was one who found himself deprived of the opportunity to support the party of his choice," he added.—Reuter.

"I would have supposed that the only frustrated voter was one who found himself deprived of the opportunity to support the party of his choice," he added.—Reuter.

Father's Despairing Act

Hannibal, Missouri, Jan. 29.—A young father shouted: "I am going to get my babies or I will die," then perished with three children in a blazing shack here.

A fire that destroyed the two-roomed home on the bank of the Mississippi River killed 25-year-old Thomas Woodrow Armstrong and his two daughters, Barbara Ann, aged three, and Pearl, aged 11 months, and his two-year-old son, Thomas.

A fourth child, aged five, was taken to hospital with burns. The father's body was found crouched over his youngest child.—Reuter.

A fire that destroyed the two-roomed home on the bank of the Mississippi River killed 25-year-old Thomas Woodrow Armstrong and his two daughters, Barbara Ann, aged three, and Pearl, aged 11 months, and his two-year-old son, Thomas.

A fourth child, aged five, was taken to hospital with burns. The father's body was found crouched over his youngest child.—Reuter.

A fire that destroyed the two-roomed home on the bank of the Mississippi River killed 25-year-old Thomas Woodrow Armstrong and his two daughters, Barbara Ann, aged three, and Pearl, aged 11 months, and his two-year-old son, Thomas.

A fourth child, aged five, was taken to hospital with burns. The father's body was found crouched over his youngest child.—Reuter.

Snow In Eastern Scotland

London, Jan. 29.—Snow fell heavily in Eastern Scotland today. Snow was also reported from Devonshire in the south-west corner of England which normally enjoys milder weather than the rest of the country.

The largest crowd of skaters for many years gathered today on the lake high on the Devonshire moors.—Reuter.

The largest crowd of skaters for many years gathered today on the lake high on the Devonshire moors.—Reuter.

The largest crowd of skaters for many years gathered today on the lake high on the Devonshire moors.—Reuter.

The largest crowd of skaters for many years gathered today on the lake high on the Devonshire moors.—Reuter.

The largest crowd of skaters for many years gathered today on the lake high on the Devonshire moors.—Reuter.

The largest crowd of skaters for many years gathered today on the lake high on the Devonshire moors.—Reuter.

The largest crowd of skaters for many years gathered today on the lake high on the Devonshire moors.—Reuter.

The largest crowd of skaters for many years gathered today on the lake high on the Devonshire moors.—Reuter.

The largest crowd of skaters for many years gathered today on the lake high on the Devonshire moors.—Reuter.

The largest crowd of skaters for many years gathered today on the lake high on the Devonshire moors.—Reuter.

Million-Dollar Search For Lost C-54 Transport Plane

White Horse, Yukon Territory, Jan. 29.—American and Canadian flyers raced against time today in a hazardous million-dollar search for an Air Force C-54 transport which disappeared on Thursday over the treacherous Canadian Rockies with 44 persons aboard.

Nearly 90 planes zoomed into the day but 10-15-minute intervals from a score of airfields in the United States and Canada. More than 7,000 men were involved in the operation, one of the greatest air searches of all time.

Flyers started leaving their bases at dawn in bitter cold, clear weather to criss-cross 3,600 square mile area. Hope was still held that the big plane would be found with survivors on some icy slope or frozen lake.

Army officers said the transport carried only a three-day supply of food. The plane was last heard from while flying over jagged snow-covered peaks where temperatures hung 30 degrees below zero.

Robert Hertzler, United Press staff correspondent, reported from Great Falls, Montana, air base, the key search-plane-dispatching centre, that 5,000 men there were aiding in the search, including crews, ground forces, and auxiliary personnel. The rest of men were operating in Canada.

The probable cost of the American operations alone has already reached $1,000,000 in gas, pay for the men and other costs of maintaining operation," said Major Joseph Smith, who is directing U.S. Air Force operations.

The extreme cold is presenting a major difficulty. Ground crews are having a hard time warming up planes in the 24 degrees below zero temperature. It is still snowing in this area, where the main search concentrated, and planes report icy conditions when they fly below 4,000 feet, which they must do if they are going to conduct an effective search.—United Press.

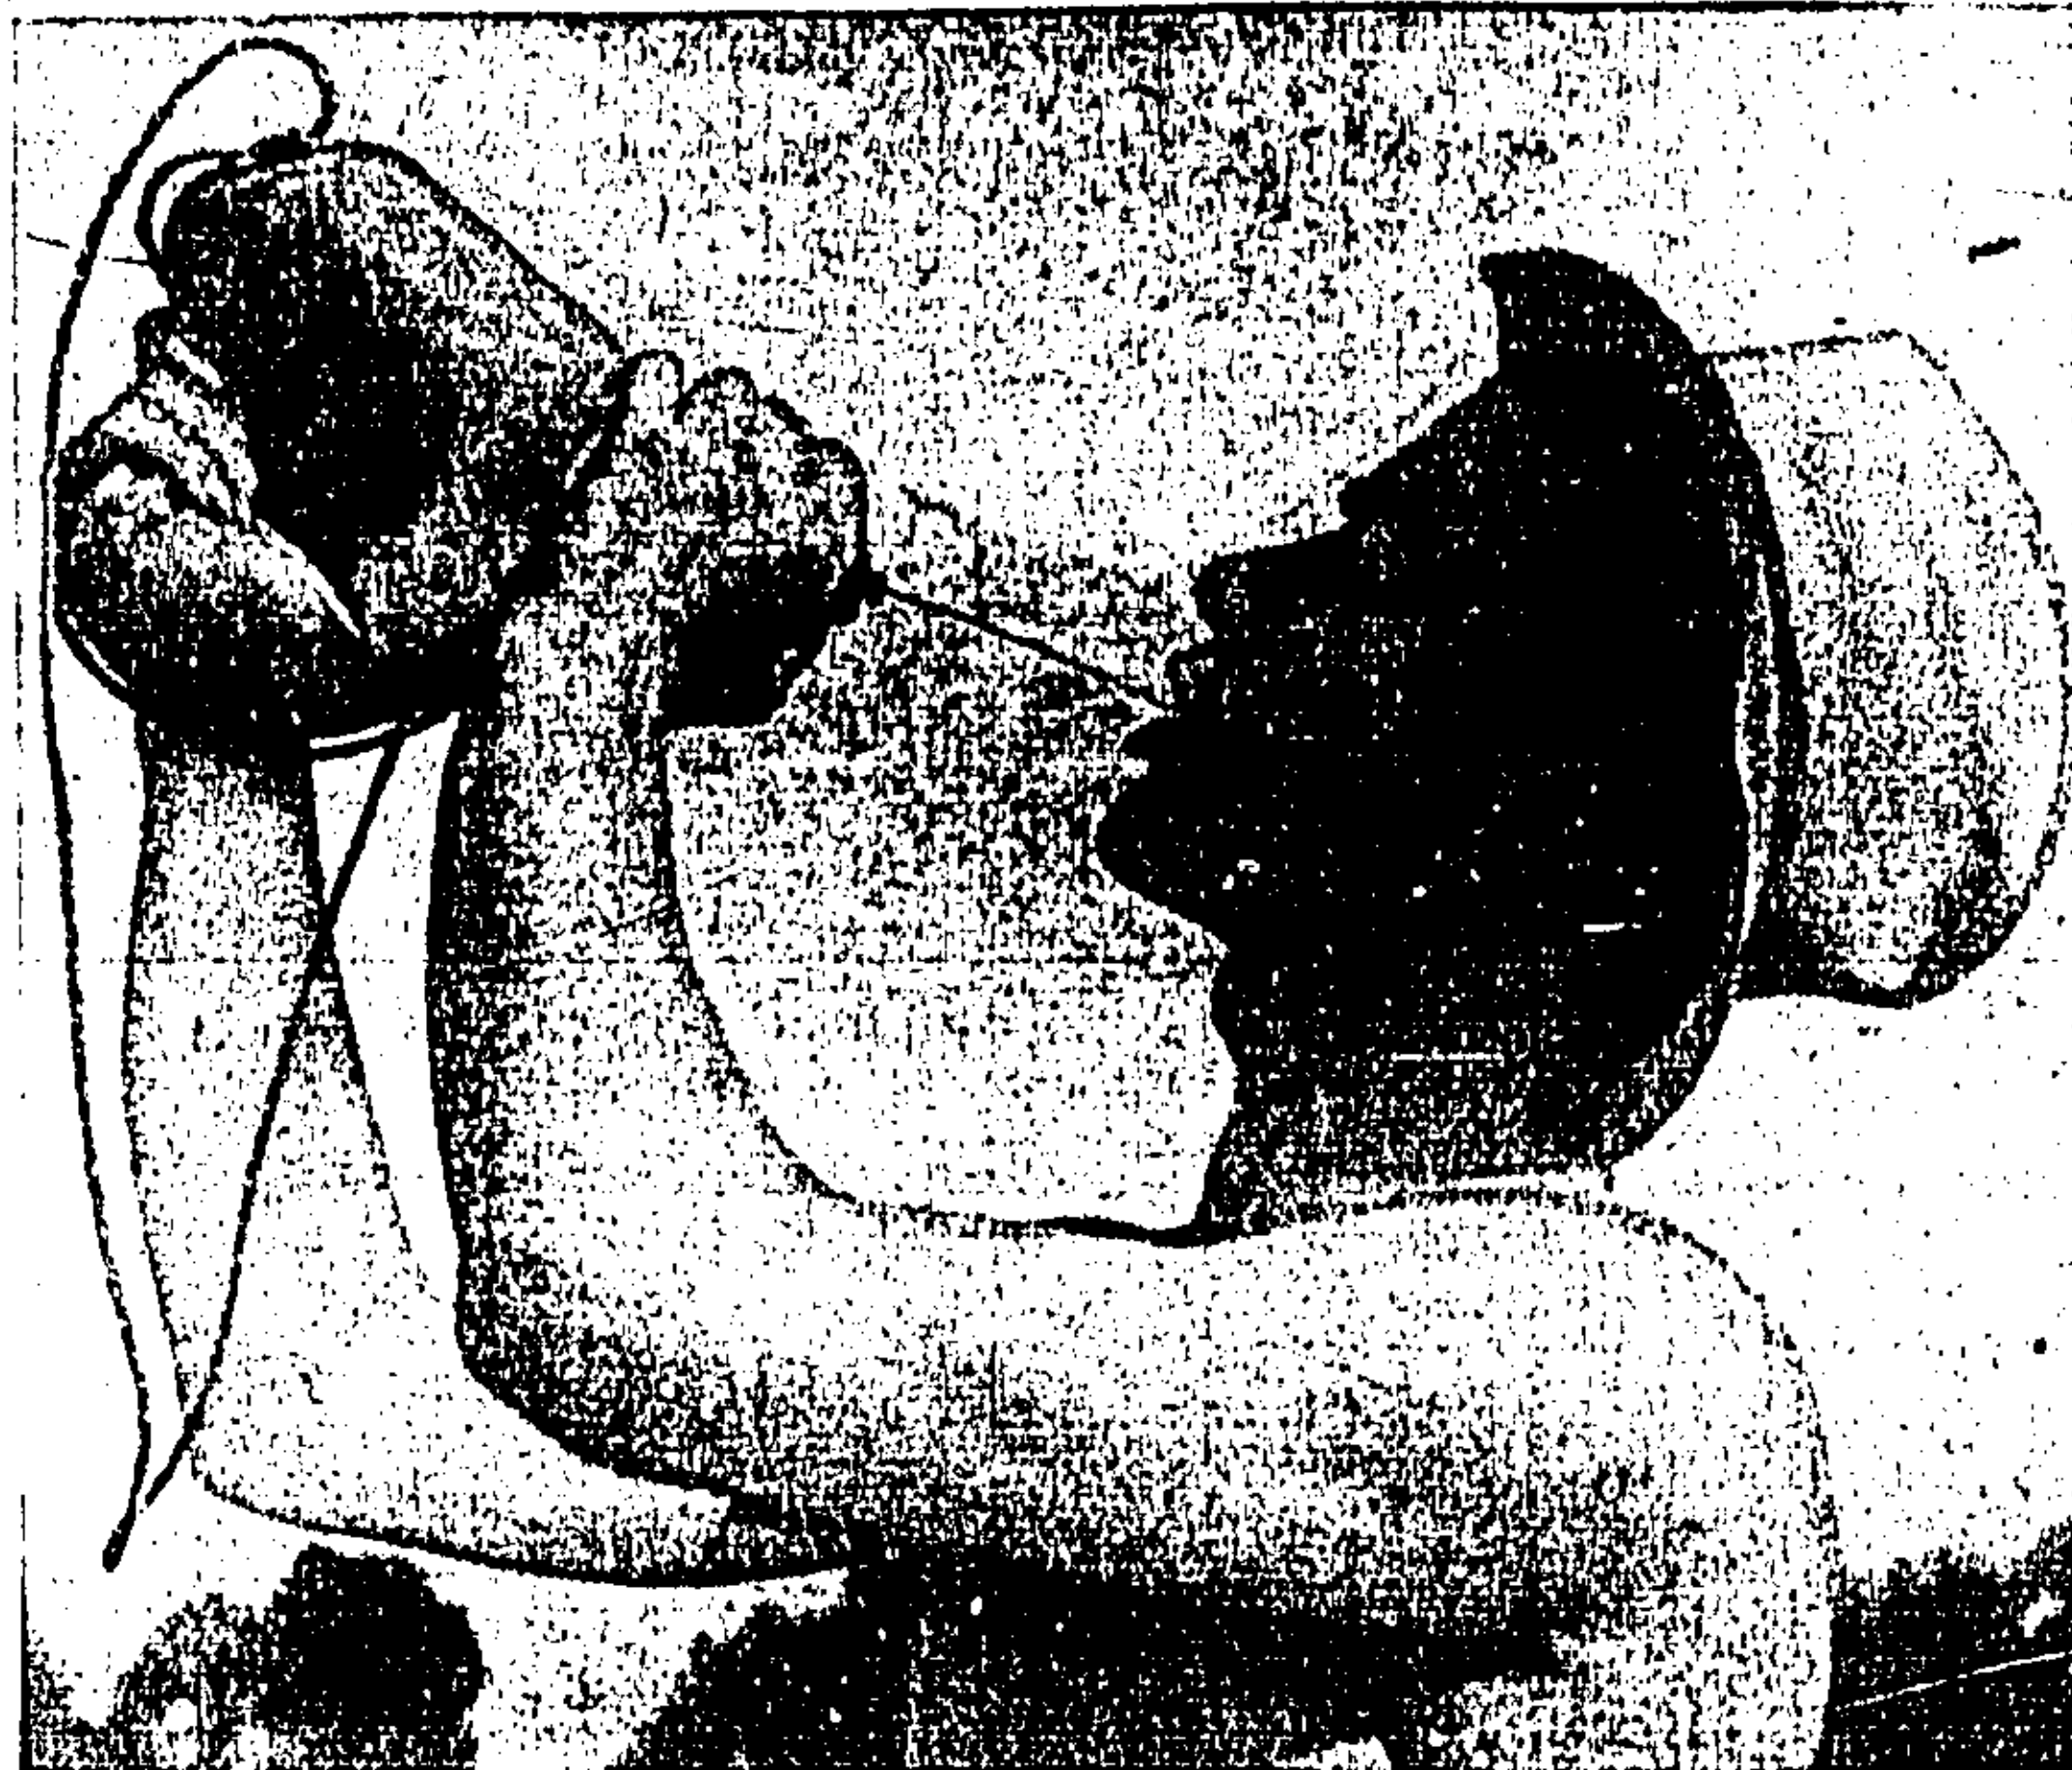

The probable cost of the American operations alone has already reached $1,000,000 in gas, pay for the men and other costs of maintaining operation," said Major Joseph Smith, who is directing U.S. Air Force operations.

The extreme cold is presenting a major difficulty. Ground crews are having a hard time warming up planes in the 24 degrees below zero temperature. It is still snowing in this area, where the main search concentrated, and planes report icy conditions when they fly below 4,000 feet, which they must do if they are going to conduct an effective search.—United Press.

PICTORIAL NEWSFRONT

YOUNG ACCOUNTANTS—Little Marla Squire and Peter Mathews are accounting for the pennies they and their school pals contributed to the construction of a kindergarten in San Francisco. The new school will provide for mentally retarded children.

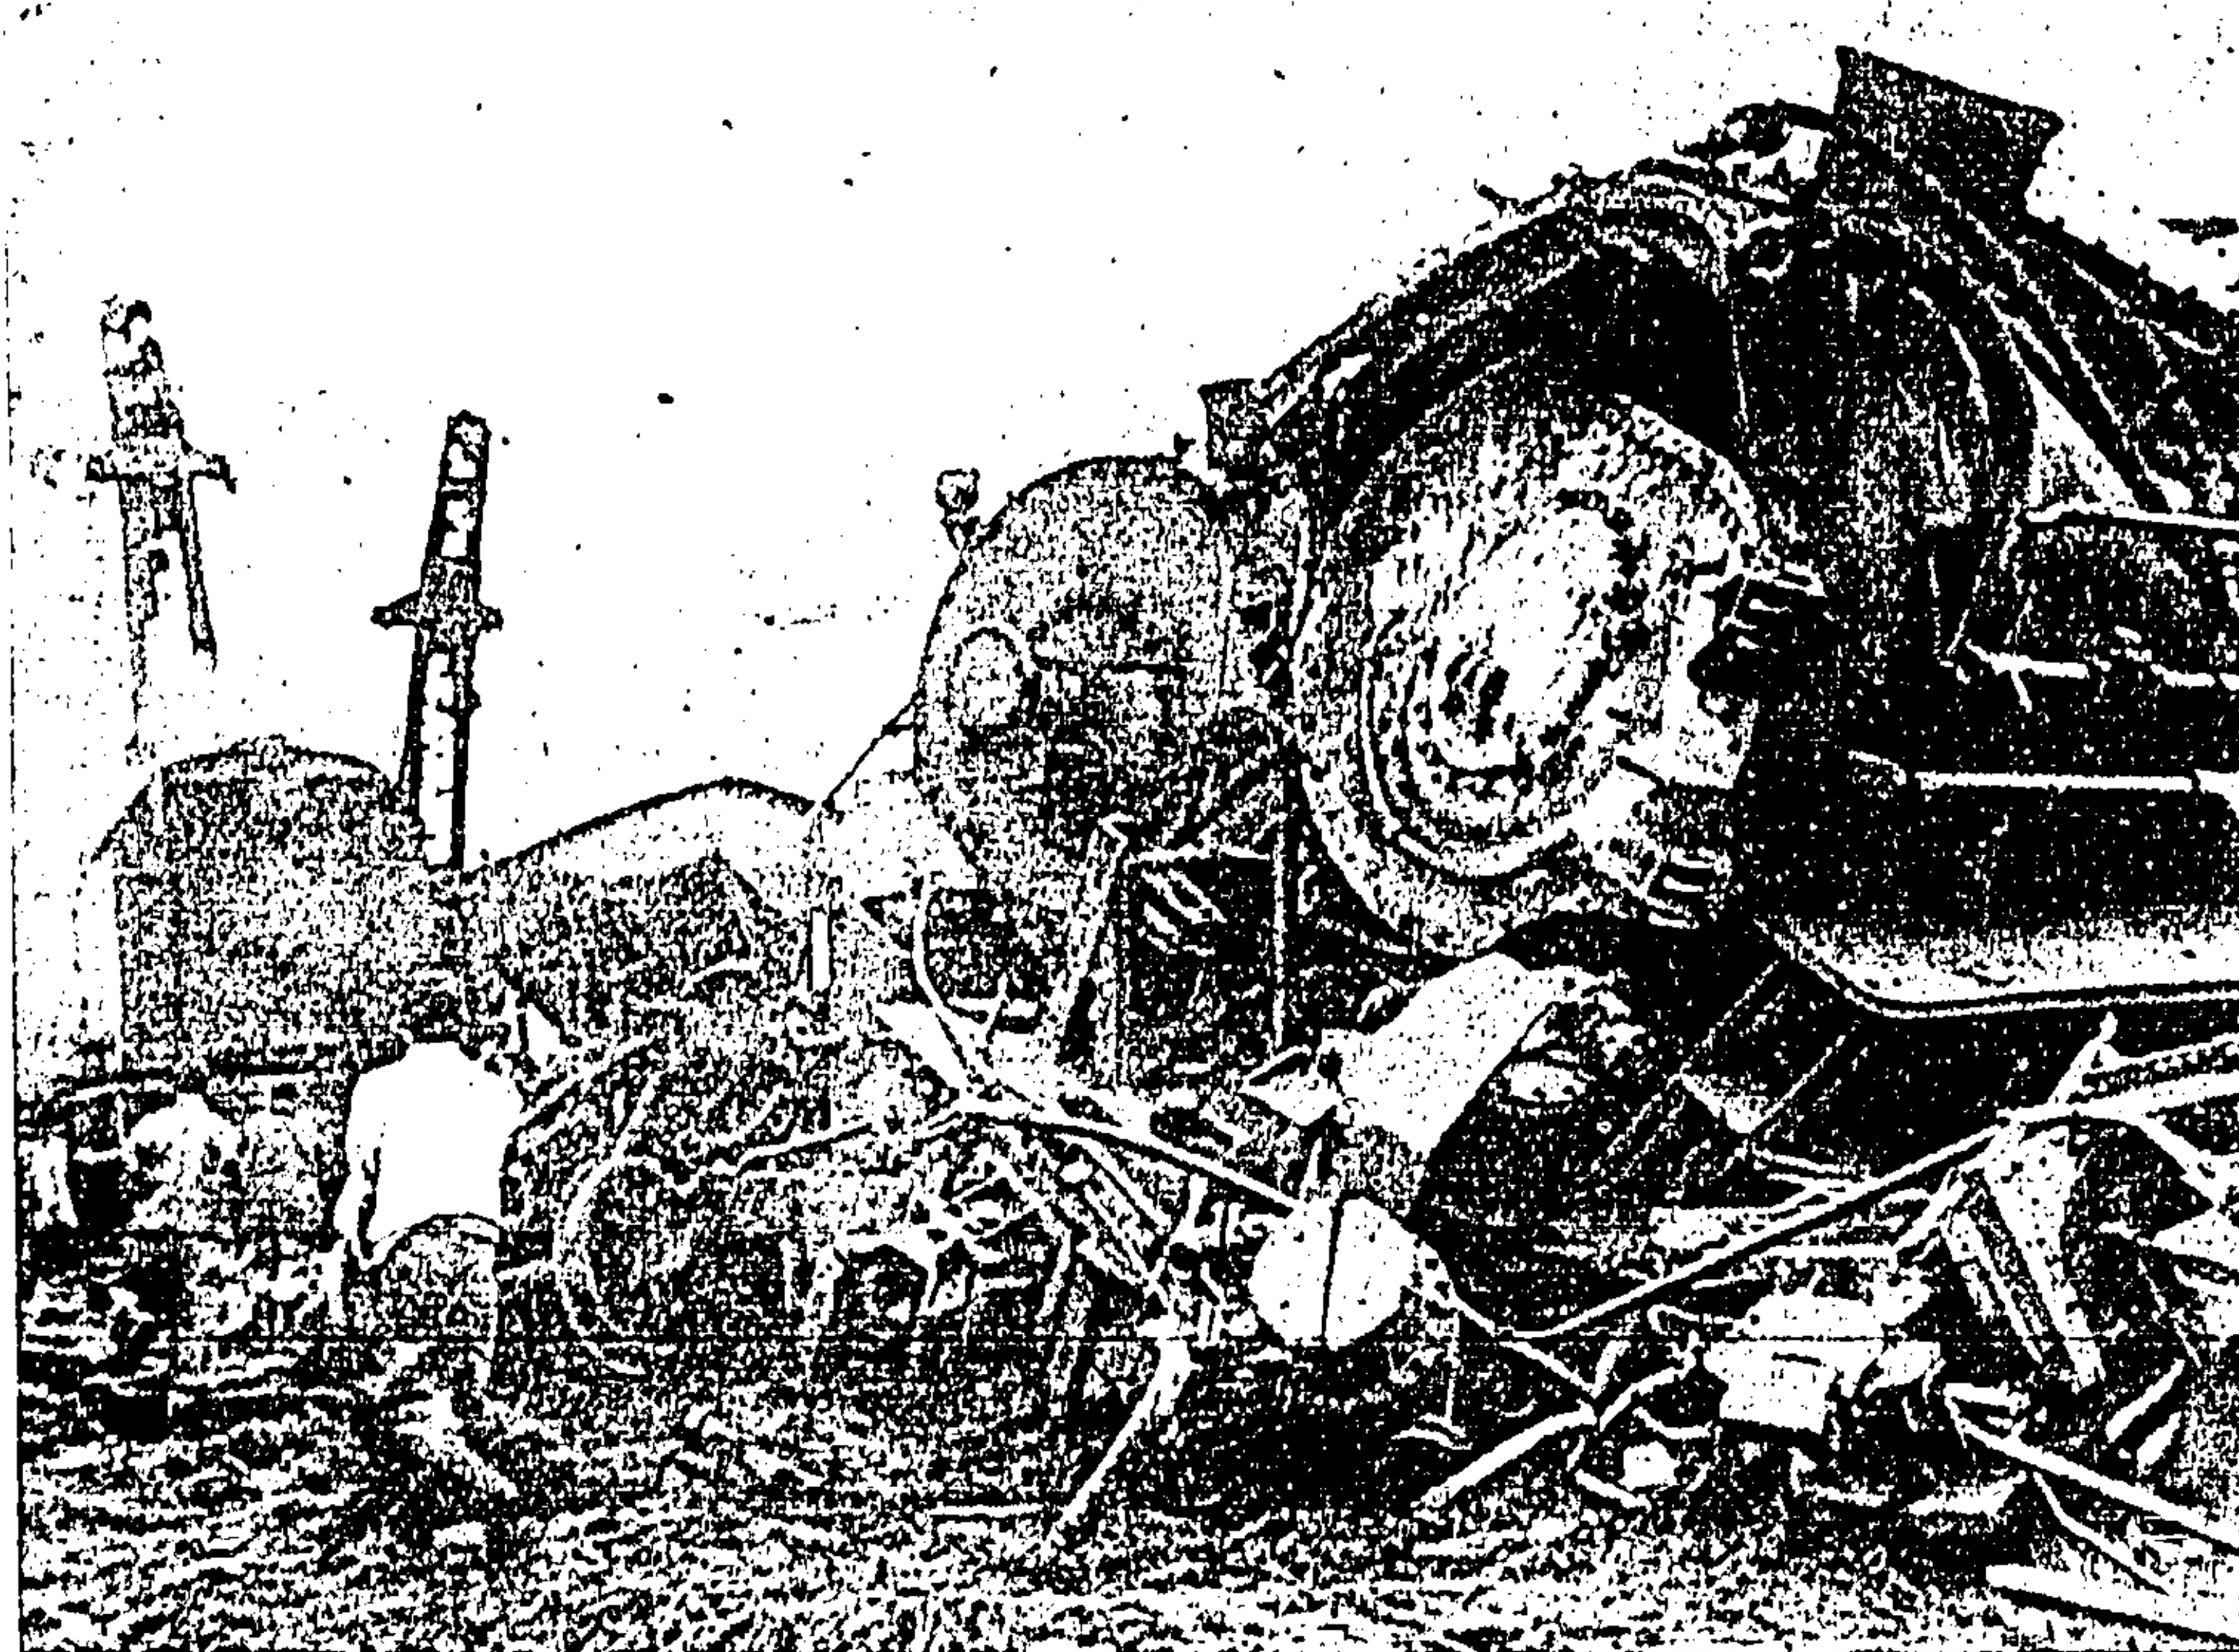

WINTER HARVEST—The midday sun at Pau, in southern France, makes winter harvesting a warm job. This shirtless worker squirts a cooling draught of red wine into his parched throat. Goatskin wine bags are constant companions of the field workers.

DESIRE NAMED STREETCAR—Streetcar operators sit and wait in St. Louis, Missouri, during a power line break. A severe ice storm crippled the city's transportation by causing a temporary tie-up of different types of traffic.

THREE WISE GIRLS—And they make a pretty totem pole at New Smyrna Beach, Florida. Lois Driver, Martha Mitchell and Ann Williamson see no evil, speak no evil and hear no evil.

A NARROW ESCAPE FOR SOME—Only two crewmen were injured when two freight trains collided on the New York Central West Shore tracks, near Lyons, N.Y. One locomotive and eight box cars were derailed.

HELPING OTHERS—Wanda Wiley, aged eight, of Austin, Texas, is that state's second consecutive poster child to symbolize the annual "March of Dimes" campaign. Although last year saw America's worst polio epidemic, Wanda was a victim in 1948.

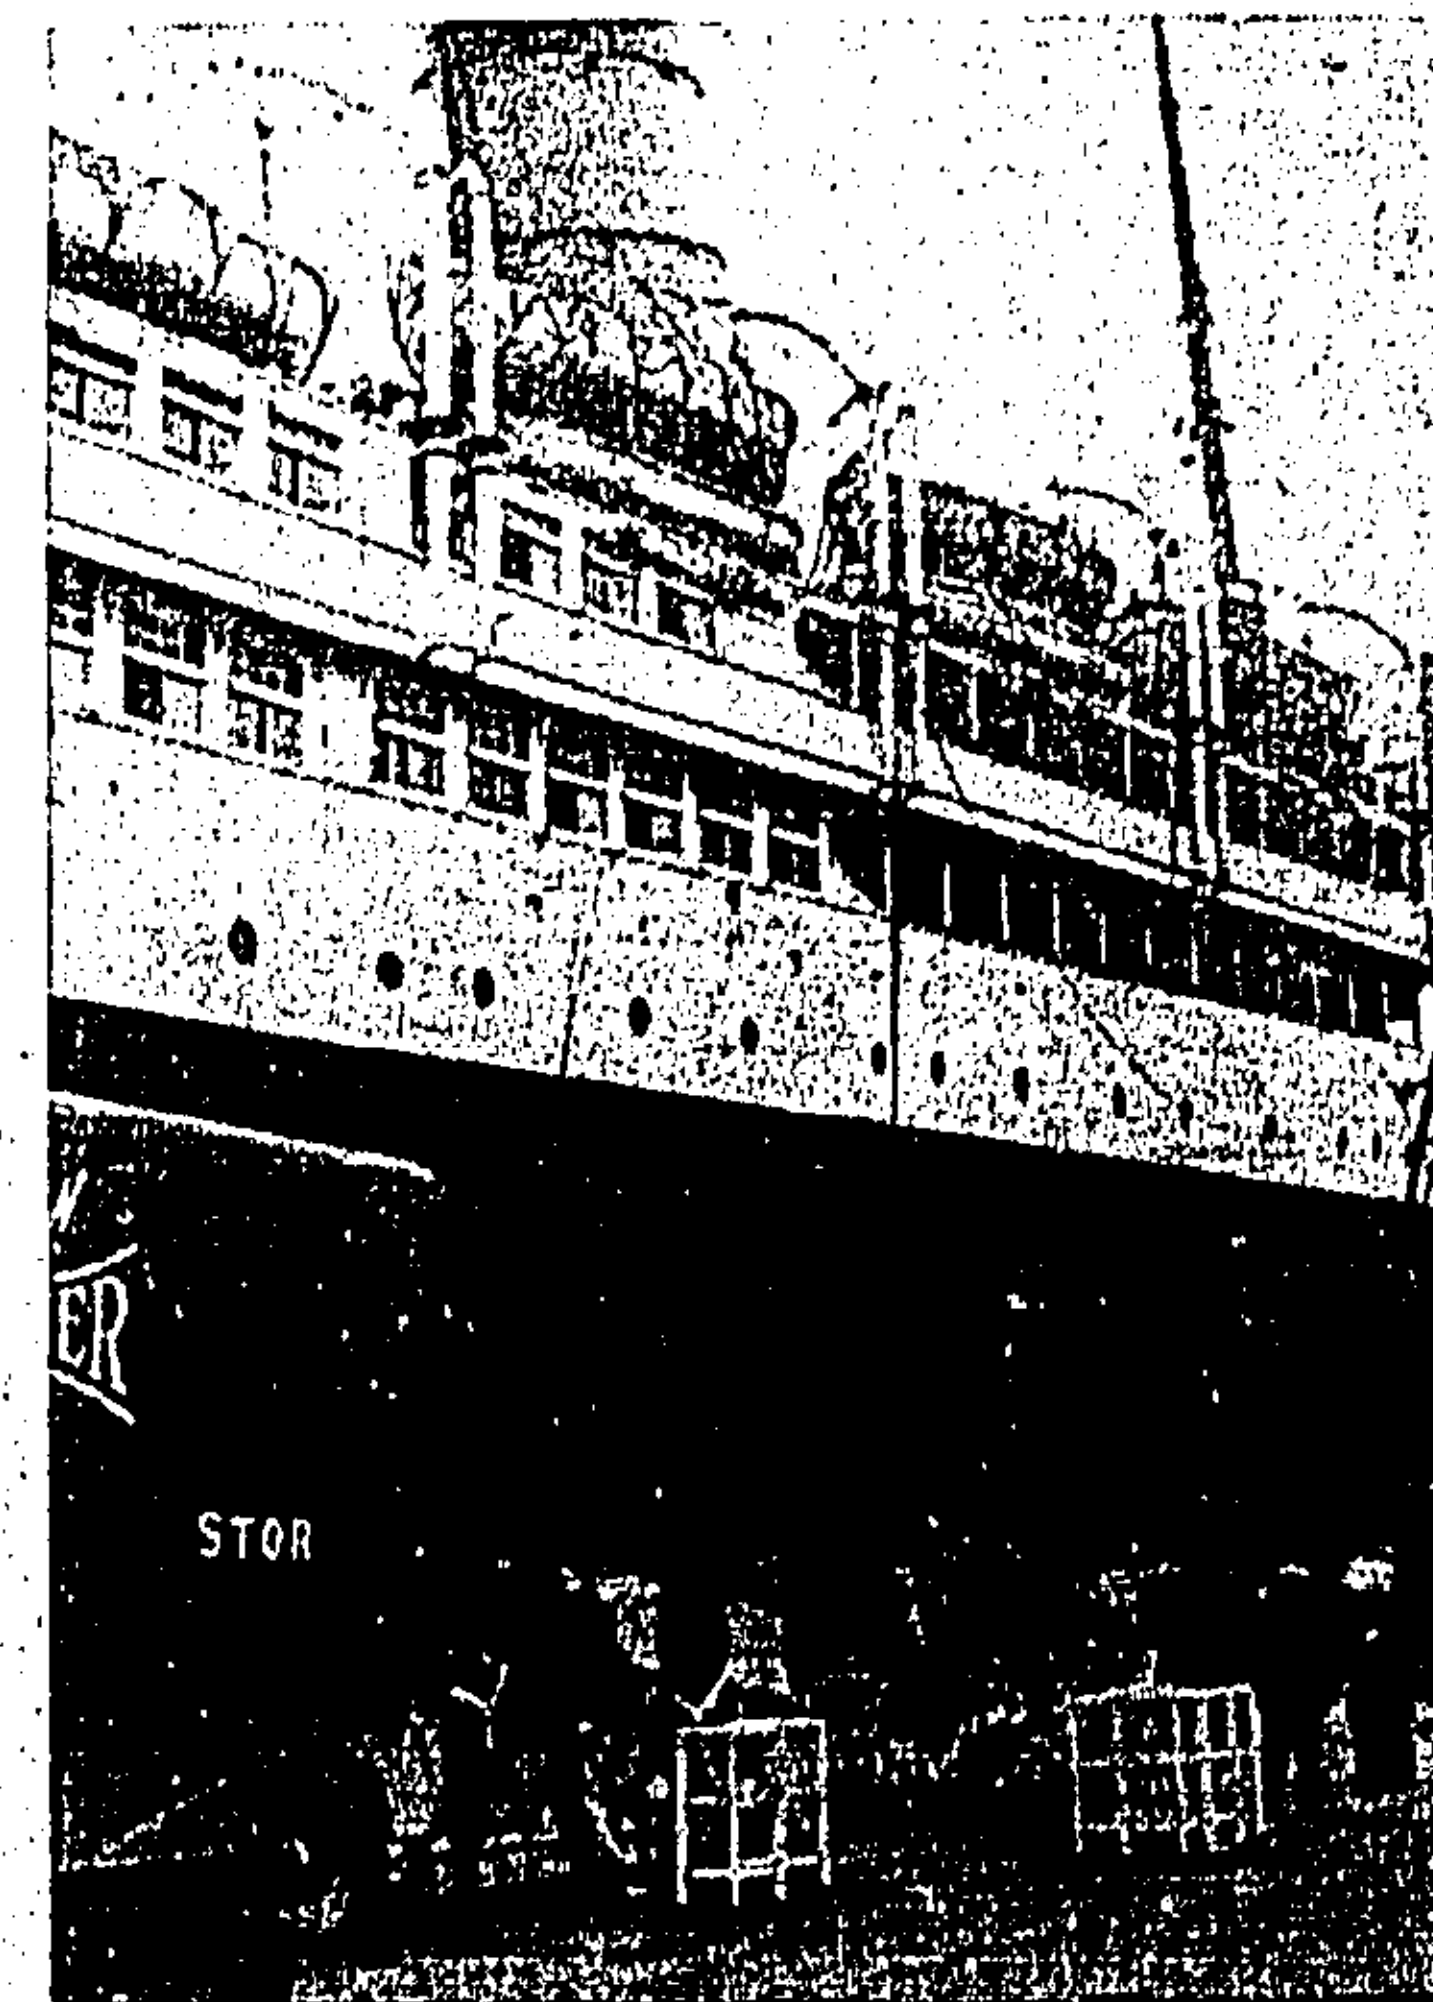

HER SIREN SONG—While relaxing in St. Augustine, Florida, Metropolitan Opera star Martha Lipton had this meeting with a couple of dolphins. They may have had their eyes on that tempting little flounder Martha is holding, or perhaps her song intrigued them.

NOT THIS TIME—Tony Leswick, left, of the Rangers, comes on the goalie from the rear as his teammate, Duncan Fisher, makes the frontal attack during a game with the Chicago Black Hawks in New York. Goalie Frank Brimsek made the save despite falling down. Chicago's Ernie Dickens is at right.

HIGH STYLE—In her new picture with Clark Gable, Loretta Young wears this striped dressing gown. The fabric is tucked at the waist to form a solid colour.

TO BE AUCTIONED—Piled up on the quayside in Southampton is some of the furniture from the "retired" 34,000-ton liner Aquitania. It will be auctioned to the public, since the former luxury ship is to be scrapped. The 35-year-old vessel was the last of the four-funnelled liners.

TO-DAY
ONLYMAJESTIC At 2.30, 5.00,
7.20 & 9.30
P.M.THE DRIVE!
40,000 hooves
thundering across the vast plains
and mighty rivers
of a sprawling continent!THE AMBUSH!
Bullet against flaming arrow as wood-road sweeps
ride the ring
of death!IN 25 YEARS
ONLY THREE!

"COVERED WAGON"

"CIMARRON"

AND NOW —
HOWARD HAWKS' GREAT PRODUCTION
"RED RIVER"

HOWARD HAWKS' "RED RIVER"

JOHN WAYNE, MONTGOMERY CLIFT

WALTER BRIDGES, JOANNE D'ARCY

From the Saturday Evening Post story "The Cowboy Trail" by Robert Cowley

Screenplay by Robert Cowley and Charles Schnee. Screenplay by Robert Cowley and Charles Schnee. Screenplay by Robert Cowley and Charles Schnee.

Produced by HOWARD HAWKS. Directed by HOWARD HAWKS.

Charles BOYER • Ann BLYTH TO-MORROW "A WOMAN'S VENGEANCE"CENTRAL
THEATRE270, QUEEN'S RD. CENTRAL. PHONE 25720
4 SHOWS DAILY AT 2.30, 5.15, 7.15 & 9.15 P.M.VALERIE HOBSON
JAMES DONALD HAROLD KEEL
THE SMALL VOICE

ALSO

DON'T KEEP THE FACTS OF LIFE A SECRET
WE'LL SHOW YOU!
BECAUSE OF EVE
THE STORY OF LIFE!
ON STAGE IN PASTOR
MR. ALEXANDER LEEDS
WOMEN ONLY 7 P.M.
MEN ONLY 9 P.M.
ADULTS 10 P.M.SEGREGATED AUDIENCES BY ORDER
(HIGH SCHOOL AGE & OVER)LADIES: 5.15 SHOW ONLY MEN: 2.30, 7.15 & 9.15 P.M. ONLYORIENTAL
AIR-CONDITIONED

TAKE ANY EASTERN TRAM CAR OR HAPPY VALLEY BUS

Final Showing To-day: 2.30—5.15—7.20 & 9.30 p.m.

THE THRILLING STORY OF THREE DESPERADOES WHO KEPT A PROMISE TO A WOMAN! IT'S A NEW HIT!

JOHN FORD'S TECHNICOLOR Legend of the Southwest!

3 GODFATHERS
JOHN WAYNE PEDRO ARMARANT
HARRY CAREY, JR.
Produced by
ARGOSY PICTURES CORPORATION
A METRO-GOLDWYN-MAYER PICTURE

Commencing To-morrow: "WHISPERING CITY"

TO-DAY
ONLYCathay At 12.30, 2.30,
5.30, 7.30 &
9.30 P.M.• FIRST SHOWING IN HONG KONG •
THE LATEST SPECIAL NEWSREEL OF TO-DAY!"NEWS FROM CANTON" MANDARIN & CANTONESE VERSION州廣的生新5 SHOWS TO-MORROW—ERROL FLYNN in with RONALD REAGAN
"DESPERATE JOURNEY"

Coming Shortly: "WE WERE STRANGERS"

Looking at the Colombo Conference

Economic Concord; Political Discord

By M. V. BURNETT

THE Colombo Conference, which met in the city of Ceylon, has been a success in many respects. It has brought together the leaders of the Commonwealth, and has shown that they are capable of co-operation and of making decisions of great importance. The conference has also shown that the Commonwealth is a strong and united body, and that it is capable of standing up to the challenges of the world.

The conference has also shown that the Commonwealth is a strong and united body, and that it is capable of standing up to the challenges of the world. The conference has also shown that the Commonwealth is a strong and united body, and that it is capable of standing up to the challenges of the world.

The conference has also shown that the Commonwealth is a strong and united body, and that it is capable of standing up to the challenges of the world. The conference has also shown that the Commonwealth is a strong and united body, and that it is capable of standing up to the challenges of the world.

The conference has also shown that the Commonwealth is a strong and united body, and that it is capable of standing up to the challenges of the world. The conference has also shown that the Commonwealth is a strong and united body, and that it is capable of standing up to the challenges of the world.

The conference has also shown that the Commonwealth is a strong and united body, and that it is capable of standing up to the challenges of the world. The conference has also shown that the Commonwealth is a strong and united body, and that it is capable of standing up to the challenges of the world.

The conference has also shown that the Commonwealth is a strong and united body, and that it is capable of standing up to the challenges of the world. The conference has also shown that the Commonwealth is a strong and united body, and that it is capable of standing up to the challenges of the world.

The conference has also shown that the Commonwealth is a strong and united body, and that it is capable of standing up to the challenges of the world. The conference has also shown that the Commonwealth is a strong and united body, and that it is capable of standing up to the challenges of the world.

DAMAGE DONE

WHAT happened at Colombo was a success in many respects. It has brought together the leaders of the Commonwealth, and has shown that they are capable of co-operation and of making decisions of great importance. The conference has also shown that the Commonwealth is a strong and united body, and that it is capable of standing up to the challenges of the world.

The conference has also shown that the Commonwealth is a strong and united body, and that it is capable of standing up to the challenges of the world. The conference has also shown that the Commonwealth is a strong and united body, and that it is capable of standing up to the challenges of the world.

The conference has also shown that the Commonwealth is a strong and united body, and that it is capable of standing up to the challenges of the world. The conference has also shown that the Commonwealth is a strong and united body, and that it is capable of standing up to the challenges of the world.

The conference has also shown that the Commonwealth is a strong and united body, and that it is capable of standing up to the challenges of the world. The conference has also shown that the Commonwealth is a strong and united body, and that it is capable of standing up to the challenges of the world.

The conference has also shown that the Commonwealth is a strong and united body, and that it is capable of standing up to the challenges of the world. The conference has also shown that the Commonwealth is a strong and united body, and that it is capable of standing up to the challenges of the world.

The conference has also shown that the Commonwealth is a strong and united body, and that it is capable of standing up to the challenges of the world. The conference has also shown that the Commonwealth is a strong and united body, and that it is capable of standing up to the challenges of the world.

THE KASHMIR

ON the Kashmir question, it is felt that the Conference failed to come up to scratch. Although there were in the "informal talks" on the subject in Colombo, it is felt in Britain that one of the most concrete and useful findings was avoided and a Commonwealth weakness exposed. Those who have been arguing that the Commonwealth should claim back the Kashmir problem from the United Nations feel disappointed.

The great achievement of the Commonwealth, as The Times says, has undoubtedly been the new approach to the problems of Southeast Asia. "The establishment of Communism in China is a warning that cannot be disregarded," says The Times. "Bevin would be the first to admit that the Commonwealth alone cannot hope to stop Communism from spreading or to provide the capital investment and technical assistance necessary to rescue Southeast Asia from poverty. A great responsibility must fall on the United States."

The plans which will be considered by the various Governments, and later by the consultative Committee in Australia, will serve as an important new piece of the flexible and developing machinery of the Commonwealth.

All quarters approve the spirit of economic concord which could be heard above the political discords on certain issues.

The conference has also shown that the Commonwealth is a strong and united body, and that it is capable of standing up to the challenges of the world. The conference has also shown that the Commonwealth is a strong and united body, and that it is capable of standing up to the challenges of the world.

The conference has also shown that the Commonwealth is a strong and united body, and that it is capable of standing up to the challenges of the world. The conference has also shown that the Commonwealth is a strong and united body, and that it is capable of standing up to the challenges of the world.

NEW APPROACH

COMMENTING on this leader, a spokesman of the Central Consultative Office in London said that the Party believes in the participation in both Western Union and the Commonwealth with economic schemes. Judging from Press reports, the success of the conference was disappointing.

Broadly speaking, Britain is disappointed that major issues were not thrashed out at the Conference, though there is national satisfaction over the measures of economic agreement and the formation of the consultative committee meeting in Australia to consider them.

The great achievement of the Commonwealth, as The Times says, has undoubtedly been the new approach to the problems of Southeast Asia. "The establishment of Communism in China is a warning that cannot be disregarded," says The Times. "Bevin would be the first to admit that the Commonwealth alone cannot hope to stop Communism from spreading or to provide the capital investment and technical assistance necessary to rescue Southeast Asia from poverty. A great responsibility must fall on the United States."

The plans which will be considered by the various Governments, and later by the consultative Committee in Australia, will serve as an important new piece of the flexible and developing machinery of the Commonwealth.

All quarters approve the spirit of economic concord which could be heard above the political discords on certain issues.

The conference has also shown that the Commonwealth is a strong and united body, and that it is capable of standing up to the challenges of the world. The conference has also shown that the Commonwealth is a strong and united body, and that it is capable of standing up to the challenges of the world.

The conference has also shown that the Commonwealth is a strong and united body, and that it is capable of standing up to the challenges of the world. The conference has also shown that the Commonwealth is a strong and united body, and that it is capable of standing up to the challenges of the world.

Big men of the Ruhr give a Secret dinner

DUSSELDORF. JOKING with friends among his fellow passengers in a Germany-bound B.E.A. plane sat one of the ablest and shrewdest of our diplomats, Sir Ivone Kirkpatrick. He is head of the German department of the Foreign Office.

Little, I fancy, did he suspect then that this secret trip was going to involve him in a minor diplomatic storm—complete with suspicious inquiries from the French Government, Press conferences, denials, and communications.

The official pretext for Sir Ivone Kirkpatrick's trip was a visit to Sir Brian Robertson. Its real object was to dine and talk with a representative group of Ruhr magnates—the first such contact ever to be made by a British official.

Sir Ivone's hosts were bankers and industrialists belonging to a circle which for the past year has been discussing a Franco-German industrial alliance and amalgamation with a similarly representative group of Frenchmen.

I believe it is significant that Mr. Bevin authorised his chief adviser on German policy and the Ruhr barons among them men like Zangen and Stinnes, who had been big names in the Hitler era.

Talking Heresy

FOR in doing so he has at last departed from Socialist policy which has confined contacts with non-official Germans in the industrial world almost exclusively to trades unionists, a dangerously doctrinaire approach.

But Mr. Bevin has gone further still. He has allowed his advisers to talk heresy to him. In discussing Sir Ivone's trip he lent a tolerant ear to the argument that nationalisation of the Ruhr industries should cease to be an objective of British policy. That, to my mind, is sound.

For nationalisation does not guarantee that the Ruhr will not be used again to arm German aggressors. It might well have the opposite effect.

Nationalisation would place under the control of the German Government a concentration of industrial power which might serve to encourage aggressive ideas in some unscrupulous future German Government.

German industry split up in individualistic, privately owned, unco-ordinated concerns would give a better guarantee of democracy and peace.

When the aircraft had landed, Sir Ivone was driven to General Bishop's famous 74-room mansion.

Two miles away in Düsseldorf Baron Lerner, the German ex-diplomat, who had arranged the meeting, briefed his associates as they dined at a few tables away from the luxurious Breidenbacher Hof restaurant.

Next evening at the Goldhelm Hotel in Düsseldorf the meeting at last took place. Everything that was said was confidential, but a garbled version nevertheless did leak out.

The consequence was that Sir Ivone, on his return to London, had to reassure the startled French by showing a copy of his speech to M. Baudet, of the French Embassy.

The importance of this first contact with the German industrialists lies, in my opinion, not so much in what Sir Ivone said to the Germans as what he learned from them.

I myself have been talking with German industrialists and bankers, who are the real rulers of Germany. Some of them were at the Kirkpatrick party.

The dominating impression I carried away from my talks in that the Ruhr magnates are determined to rid West Germany as quickly as possible from Allied interference.

They will do this, partly by penetration and negotiation, partly by sabotage and blackmail.

The German Government and the industrialists behind it will offer every kind of guarantee for the security of Europe, and of France in particular, if the Allies will withdraw.

Chancellor Adenauer has been told that if the Germans are good boys and win the confidence of their Western neighbours by not exploiting the concessions already made, they will be rewarded when the occupation statute comes up for revision at the end of September 1950.

Then they may be given the same kind of freedom from control as Austria enjoys today.

At the same time, they will do their best to get into the inside of the remaining control organisations in order to make them as ineffective as possible.

One of them told me in all frankness that this was why the Germans had consented to join the Ruhr authority—the inter-Allied body which is to control the Ruhr industries.

"By entering it," he said, "we shall see that it works for us rather than against us."

I had another example of this technique in the way of German industrialists are conducting the campaign against the law for the decentralisation and deconcentration of German industry.

They say: "With certain reservations we accept this Allied law in principle. But we want it to be a German law under the authority of the Allies, but of the German Government and the German Parliament."

Only Remedy

TO aid them in this manoeuvre they have the support of German experts working—under the authority of the Allies—on the application of the decree. The experts say:—

"We will have nothing to do with the clauses which suggest the confiscation of shareholders' rights. For if we carry through the expropriation we make ourselves liable under German law to a claim for damages by the shareholders."

And they are right. At this moment Germany is being sued for having taken over businesses such as newspapers, on the orders of the Allied Military Government.

The only remedy is for the expropriation to be promulgated as a German law by a German Act of Parliament.

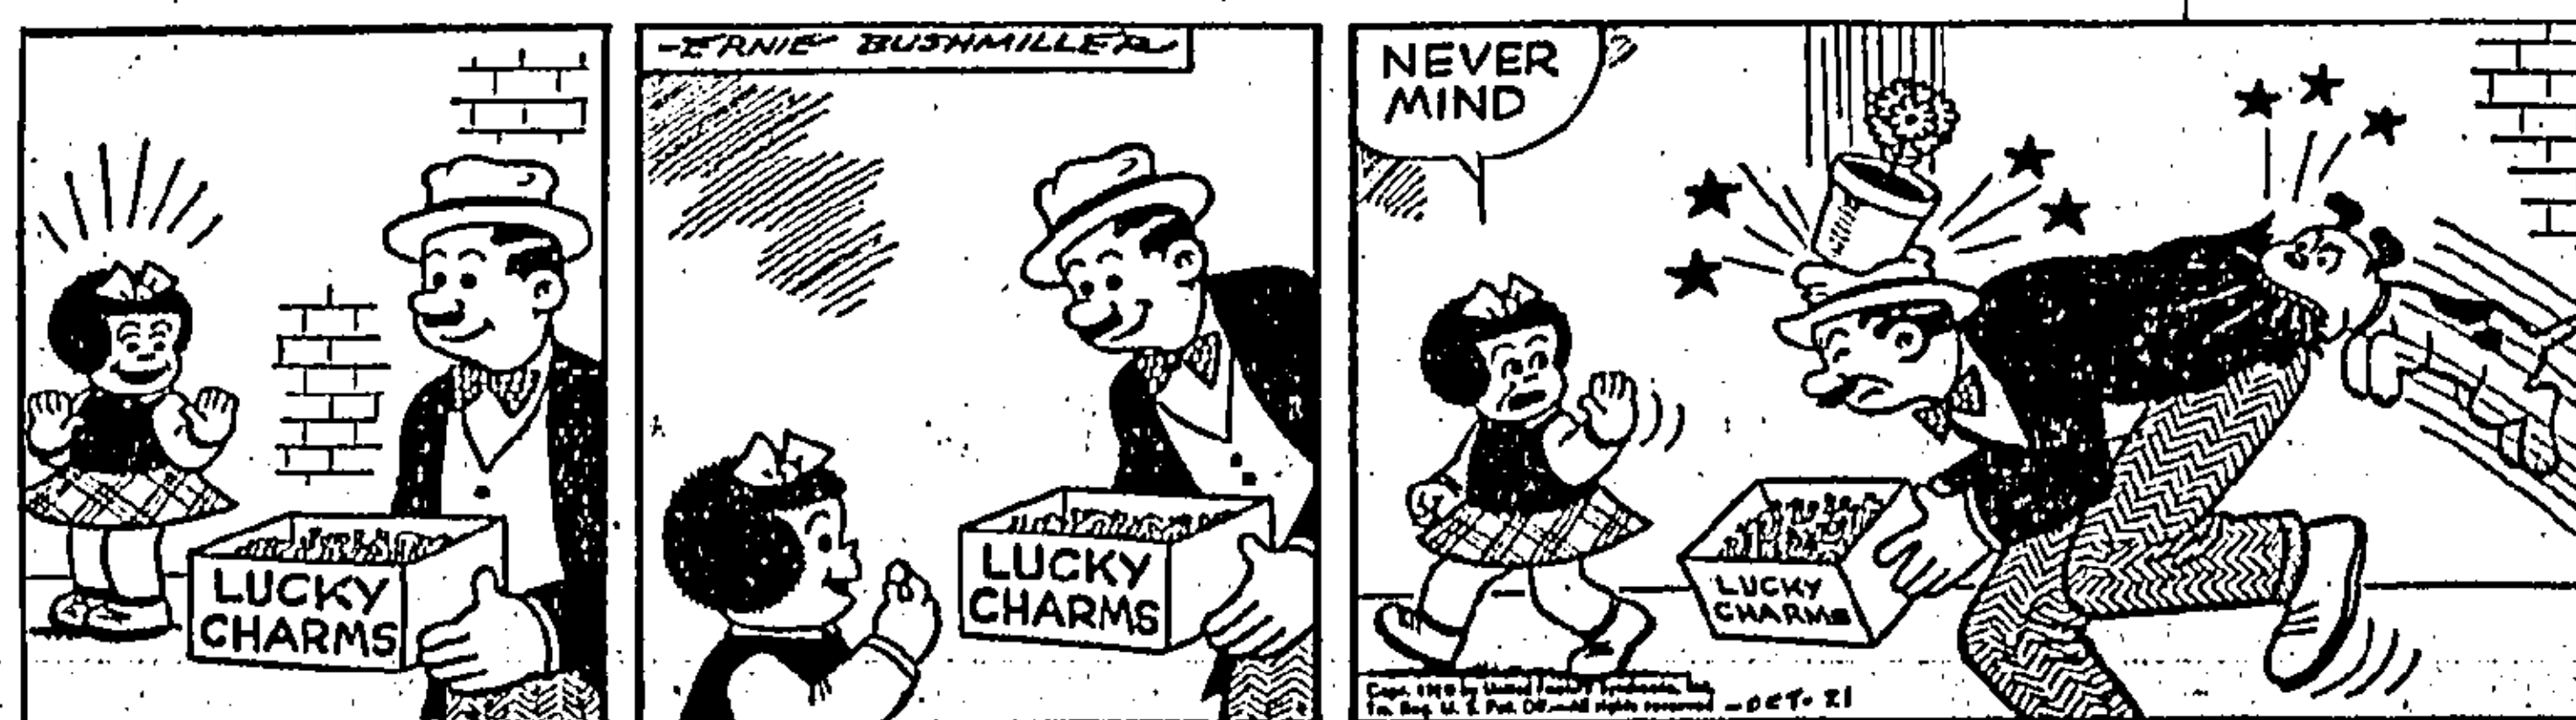

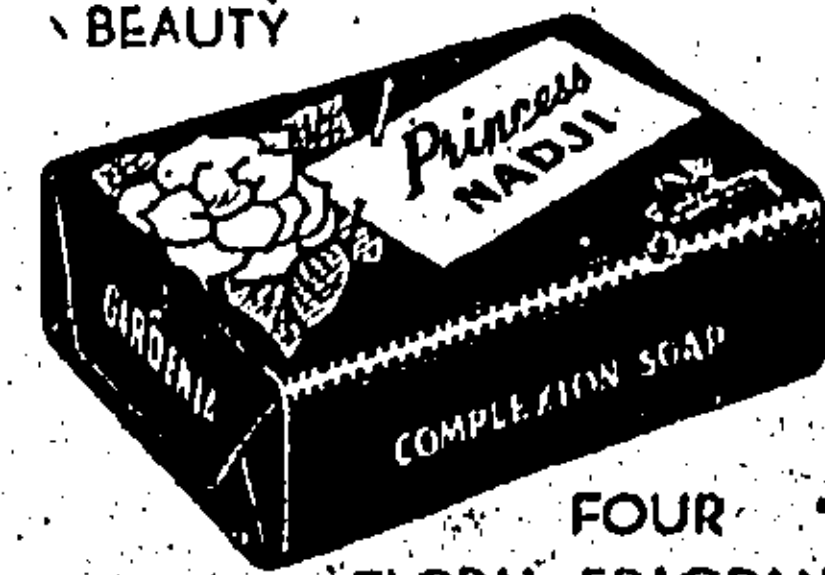

It is all quite neat and simple. And the Germans have lots more little ideas they are working on the same lines.

—(London Express Service)

NANCY

No Business

By Ernie Bushmiller

SOAP THAT SPELLS
BEAUTYFOUR
FLORAL FRAGRANCES

SOLE AGENTS: NAN KANG CO. (HONG KONG)

B'd For Air Speed Record

New York, Jan. 29.—Paul Mantz took off from here today in a converted P-51 Army fighter for Burbank, California, in an unofficial attempt to break his own East-West air speed record.

The plane also carried $25,000 worth of gold nuggets.

The 47-year-old pilot said he hoped to cut half an hour off his previous record time of 7 hrs. 4 secs. set up in 1947.

A week ago Mantz broke the West-East record by flying from Burbank to New York in 4 hrs. 52 mins. 58 secs.—Reuter

AUTHORESS KILLED IN ACCIDENT

New York 29.—A Communist Party member who wrote the book "The Masses" was killed in an airplane crash today.

The author, Gertrude Stein, was flying from New York to Los Angeles in a small plane. The plane crashed into the ocean off the coast of California.

Stein was 73 years old. She was a well-known writer and a member of the Communist Party.

The cause of the crash is still under investigation.

Stein's death is a great loss to the literary world.

Her husband, Leo Stein, was also a writer.

Stein was born in Germany.

She was a member of the Communist Party for many years.

Stein was a very famous writer.

Her death is a great loss to the literary world.

Stein was a very famous writer.

Her death is a great loss to the literary world.

Stein was a very famous writer.

Her death is a great loss to the literary world.

Stein was a very famous writer.

Her death is a great loss to the literary world.

Stein was a very famous writer.

Her death is a great loss to the literary world.

Stein was a very famous writer.

Her death is a great loss to the literary world.

Stein was a very famous writer.

Her death is a great loss to the literary world.

Stein was a very famous writer.

Her death is a great loss to the literary world.

Stein was a very famous writer.

Her death is a great loss to the literary world.

Stein was a very famous writer.

Her death is a great loss to the literary world.

Stein was a very famous writer.

Her death is a great loss to the literary world.

Stein was a very famous writer.

Her death is a great loss to the literary world.

BITTER SPEECH BY LEFTIST K.C.

London, Jan. 29.—Mr D. N. Pritt, Leftist Labour Independent Member of the House of Commons, told the British Soviet Society today that an American scheme to try to create war between two halves of the world had come to Britain under the Marshall Plan.

"We have to fight it," he declared.

Mr Pritt was supporting, at the Society's annual meeting, a resolution which declared that "a great British-Soviet friendship movement is urgently necessary for our country."

Peace through greater co-operation with the Soviet Union was one of the aims of the resolution, which was carried.

Mr Pritt said that for more than 30 years there had been attempts to destroy friendship with Russia.

He said that the resolution was a step towards the creation of a new friendship movement.

He said that the resolution was a step towards the creation of a new friendship movement.

He said that the resolution was a step towards the creation of a new friendship movement.

He said that the resolution was a step towards the creation of a new friendship movement.

He said that the resolution was a step towards the creation of a new friendship movement.

He said that the resolution was a step towards the creation of a new friendship movement.

He said that the resolution was a step towards the creation of a new friendship movement.

He said that the resolution was a step towards the creation of a new friendship movement.

He said that the resolution was a step towards the creation of a new friendship movement.

He said that the resolution was a step towards the creation of a new friendship movement.

He said that the resolution was a step towards the creation of a new friendship movement.

He said that the resolution was a step towards the creation of a new friendship movement.

He said that the resolution was a step towards the creation of a new friendship movement.

He said that the resolution was a step towards the creation of a new friendship movement.

He said that the resolution was a step towards the creation of a new friendship movement.

He said that the resolution was a step towards the creation of a new friendship movement.

He said that the resolution was a step towards the creation of a new friendship movement.

He said that the resolution was a step towards the creation of a new friendship movement.

He said that the resolution was a step towards the creation of a new friendship movement.

He said that the resolution was a step towards the creation of a new friendship movement.

He said that the resolution was a step towards the creation of a new friendship movement.

He said that the resolution was a step towards the creation of a new friendship movement.

He said that the resolution was a step towards the creation of a new friendship movement.

He said that the resolution was a step towards the creation of a new friendship movement.

He said that the resolution was a step towards the creation of a new friendship movement.

He said that the resolution was a step towards the creation of a new friendship movement.

He said that the resolution was a step towards the creation of a new friendship movement.

He said that the resolution was a step towards the creation of a new friendship movement.

He said that the resolution was a step towards the creation of a new friendship movement.

He said that the resolution was a step towards the creation of a new friendship movement.

He said that the resolution was a step towards the creation of a new friendship movement.

He said that the resolution was a step towards the creation of a new friendship movement.

He said that the resolution was a step towards the creation of a new friendship movement.

He said that the resolution was a step towards the creation of a new friendship movement.

He said that the resolution was a step towards the creation of a new friendship movement.

Roman Catholic Bishop Enthroned

The Rt. Rev. Cyril Cawdery, the new Roman Catholic Bishop of Southwark, was enthroned the other day with full ceremony. Our photo shows the new Bishop addressing the assembled clergy.

Co-operation Complete

Vinita, Oklahoma, Jan. 29.—Mrs Ellen Legg was discussing chickens before her home demonstration club.

"Now this," she said, pointing to one perched on her palm, "is a good laying hen."

Obviously overwhelmed, the hen promptly laid an egg in Mrs Legg's hand.—Associated Press

THE RIVAL WIDOWS

Washington, Jan. 29.—Mrs Florence Jean Hubcock, British-born wife of the late Colonel William Hubcock, said she planned to visit the State Department tomorrow to arrange for a pension for her three children.

She said she was anxious to return as soon as possible because of the illness of her three-year-old son, Richard.

Meanwhile, Mrs. Mary Hubcock, who also claims to be Colonel Hubcock's legal widow, returned to her home in London, England, without contacting her rival for the designation of "official widow" of the late Army officer.

The British-born Mrs. Hubcock said she had been in contact with the other widow, who had been reported to a pension for her three children.

Mrs. Hubcock had drafted a pension for her three children, but it was being held up by the State Department.

She said she was anxious to return as soon as possible because of the illness of her three-year-old son, Richard.

Meanwhile, Mrs. Mary Hubcock, who also claims to be Colonel Hubcock's legal widow, returned to her home in London, England, without contacting her rival for the designation of "official widow" of the late Army officer.

The British-born Mrs. Hubcock said she had been in contact with the other widow, who had been reported to a pension for her three children.

Mrs. Hubcock had drafted a pension for her three children, but it was being held up by the State Department.

She said she was anxious to return as soon as possible because of the illness of her three-year-old son, Richard.

Strikes Loom In France

Paris, Jan. 29.—A series of strikes is expected to begin in France tomorrow, according to a report from the French Communist Party.

The strikes are expected to be organized by the French Communist Party, which is demanding a 10 percent increase in wages.

The strikes are expected to be organized by the French Communist Party, which is demanding a 10 percent increase in wages.

More Terrorism In Malaya

Singapore, Jan. 29.—Communist terrorists ambushed a rubber estate party at Kota Tinggi, Johore State, killing six police and four labourers, it was learned today.

The party was returning from a rubber estate in the area.

The terrorists were armed with rifles and shotguns.

The police were killed in the attack.

The labourers were killed in the attack.

Tel-Aviv Riot By Communists

Tel-Aviv, Jan. 29.—Three Communists were seriously injured and a policeman lost two front teeth last night when a riot broke out during a Communist demonstration.

The riot was held in the city center.

The Communists were demanding a 10 percent increase in wages.

The riot was held in the city center.

TRAIN SMASH: 19 KILLED

New Delhi, Jan. 29.—Nineteen persons were reported to have been killed and 82 injured today when a northbound Kashmir mail train crashed into a stalled freight train at the town of Sirhind, 100 miles north of New Delhi.

The crash occurred at a level crossing.

The train was carrying passengers and cargo.

The crash occurred at a level crossing.

MR. JESSUP ARRIVES IN JAKARTA

Jakarta, Jan. 29.—Mr Philip C. Jessup, the U.S. Ambassador to Japan, arrived by plane tonight on his assignment in Asia.

He is expected to be in Indonesia for four or five days.

Mr Jessup flew from French Indochina, stopping for lunch in Singapore.

He said he will return to Singapore, then fly to Bangkok before the opening of the conference of U.S. Foreign Service officials in Bangkok.

He is accompanied by Mr Raymond B. Fosdick and Dr Everett C. New State Department consultants in the development of a new American policy in the Orient.

Mr Jessup is best known in Indonesia for his sharp denunciations before the United Nations Security Council a year ago of Dutch military action against the Indonesian Republic.

INSUFFICIENT STAFF

The Army insisted that there was insufficient personnel to guard all surplus supplies in the Philippines.

The surplus supplies were being stored in various locations.

The Army insisted that there was insufficient personnel to guard all surplus supplies in the Philippines.

NO MATCH FOR WOMAN

Sunderland, Jan. 29.—A stage strong man called "Samson" declared in court in Sunderland that he is afraid of a woman.

The woman is Violet Hanson, a petite 29-year-old bus conductress who is 5ft 4 inches and weighs 120 lbs.

"No man," said "Samson" solemnly, "is a match for a woman however strong he may be."

"Samson"—Stephen Bedford in private life—had Hanson arrested for threatening to shoot his eyes out.

He said the argument began when he tried to pass through the front door of their apartment building just as she was trying to come in.

On the stage "Samson" lets two teams of nine men play tug-of-war with a rope looped around his neck and has a truck run over planks laid across his powerful chest.

"And you are afraid of this woman?" asked the judge incredulously.

"Yes Sir, I am," said "Samson."

Hanson pleaded not guilty to breaking the peace. The case was dismissed.—Associated Press

AND DE GAULLE

Paris, Jan. 29.—Charles de Gaulle, President of the French Republic, is expected to visit the United States in the near future.

He is expected to visit the United States in the near future.

Earthquake Ravages Persian Gulf Area

Tehran, Jan. 29.—A powerful earthquake struck the Persian Gulf area today, causing widespread damage and loss of life.

The earthquake was felt in several countries in the region.

The earthquake was felt in several countries in the region.

EVERYONE SAVED

Greece, Jan. 29.—The Greek Red Cross reported today that all 50 members of the crew of the Turkish ship Etiler, which went aground off the coast of Greece, had been rescued.

The ship was carrying passengers and cargo.

The ship was carrying passengers and cargo.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Sir, May I avail myself of your courtesy to express my views on "Letters to the Editor" which appeared in Hongkong Telegraph dated 27th instant.

I must voice my support of establishing a permanent Exhibition Hall or Trade Centre which would facilitate the overseas visitors who wish to make their purchases of merchandise in Hongkong.

I have recently read with interest some articles in various journals published in connection with the "Chinese Products" Exhibition. As Hongkong goods are getting known in all parts of the world and as competition is now increasing Hongkong needs greatly some trade centre. I must state that my experience in Hongkong has been that every disappointed manufacturer lacks any knowledge of marketing their goods for export. I have had numerous promises of samples and export prices from them but have not been able to obtain same; with few exceptions also samples received are not a good advertisement for Hongkong manufacturers.

Regarding the Information Bureau which is badly needed by overseas buyers, I would state that during my month's stay in this colony, I have contacted several organizations but none have rendered me any assistance except the foreign trade service department of the Chinese Manufacturers' Union who have endeavoured to assist me in every way. I think the manufacturers could co-operate much more with the Union and give them greater support.

On the question of setting up a Travel Bureau which is very essential to us who have so little time, this Bureau needs to work with travel agencies, hotel managements, etc., together with the Manufacturers' Union which is a vital department given scope in its activities towards the future Exhibitions.

A. C. JORDAN.

Trade Exhibition Hall

Sir, May I avail myself of your courtesy to express my views on "Letters to the Editor" which appeared in Hongkong Telegraph dated 27th instant.

I must voice my support of establishing a permanent Exhibition Hall or Trade Centre which would facilitate the overseas visitors who wish to make their purchases of merchandise in Hongkong.

I have recently read with interest some articles in various journals published in connection with the "Chinese Products" Exhibition. As Hongkong goods are getting known in all parts of the world and as competition is now increasing Hongkong needs greatly some trade centre. I must state that my experience in Hongkong has been that every disappointed manufacturer lacks any knowledge of marketing their goods for export. I have had numerous promises of samples and export prices from them but have not been able to obtain same; with few exceptions also samples received are not a good advertisement for Hongkong manufacturers.

Regarding the Information Bureau which is badly needed by overseas buyers, I would state that during my month's stay in this colony, I have contacted several organizations but none have rendered me any assistance except the foreign trade service department of the Chinese Manufacturers' Union who have endeavoured to assist me in every way. I think the manufacturers could co-operate much more with the Union and give them greater support.

On the question of setting up a Travel Bureau which is very essential to us who have so little time, this Bureau needs to work with travel agencies, hotel managements, etc., together with the Manufacturers' Union which is a vital department given scope in its activities towards the future Exhibitions.

A. C. JORDAN.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Sir, May I avail myself of your courtesy to express my views on "Letters to the Editor" which appeared in Hongkong Telegraph dated 27th instant.

I must voice my support of establishing a permanent Exhibition Hall or Trade Centre which would facilitate the overseas visitors who wish to make their purchases of merchandise in Hongkong.

I have recently read with interest some articles in various journals published in connection with the "Chinese Products" Exhibition. As Hongkong goods are getting known in all parts of the world and as competition is now increasing Hongkong needs greatly some trade centre. I must state that my experience in Hongkong has been that every disappointed manufacturer lacks any knowledge of marketing their goods for export. I have had numerous promises of samples and export prices from them but have not been able to obtain same; with few exceptions also samples received are not a good advertisement for Hongkong manufacturers.

Regarding the Information Bureau which is badly needed by overseas buyers, I would state that during my month's stay in this colony, I have contacted several organizations but none have rendered me any assistance except the foreign trade service department of the Chinese Manufacturers' Union who have endeavoured to assist me in every way. I think the manufacturers could co-operate much more with the Union and give them greater support.

On the question of setting up a Travel Bureau which is very essential to us who have so little time, this Bureau needs to work with travel agencies, hotel managements, etc., together with the Manufacturers' Union which is a vital department given scope in its activities towards the future Exhibitions.

A. C. JORDAN.

Trade Exhibition Hall

Sir, May I avail myself of your courtesy to express my views on "Letters to the Editor" which appeared in Hongkong Telegraph dated 27th instant.

I must voice my support of establishing a permanent Exhibition Hall or Trade Centre which would facilitate the overseas visitors who wish to make their purchases of merchandise in Hongkong.

I have recently read with interest some articles in various journals published in connection with the "Chinese Products" Exhibition. As Hongkong goods are getting known in all parts of the world and as competition is now increasing Hongkong needs greatly some trade centre. I must state that my experience in Hongkong has been that every disappointed manufacturer lacks any knowledge of marketing their goods for export. I have had numerous promises of samples and export prices from them but have not been able to obtain same; with few exceptions also samples received are not a good advertisement for Hongkong manufacturers.

Regarding the Information Bureau which is badly needed by overseas buyers, I would state that during my month's stay in this colony, I have contacted several organizations but none have rendered me any assistance except the foreign trade service department of the Chinese Manufacturers' Union who have endeavoured to assist me in every way. I think the manufacturers could co-operate much more with the Union and give them greater support.

On the question of setting up a Travel Bureau which is very essential to us who have so little time, this Bureau needs to work with travel agencies, hotel managements, etc., together with the Manufacturers' Union which is a vital department given scope in its activities towards the future Exhibitions.

A. C. JORDAN.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Sir, May I avail myself of your courtesy to express my views on "Letters to the Editor" which appeared in Hongkong Telegraph dated 27th instant.

I must voice my support of establishing a permanent Exhibition Hall or Trade Centre which would facilitate the overseas visitors who wish to make their purchases of merchandise in Hongkong.

I have recently read with interest some articles in various journals published in connection with the "Chinese Products" Exhibition. As Hongkong goods are getting known in all parts of the world and as competition is now increasing Hongkong needs greatly some trade centre. I must state that my experience in Hongkong has been that every disappointed manufacturer lacks any knowledge of marketing their goods for export. I have had numerous promises of samples and export prices from them but have not been able to obtain same; with few exceptions also samples received are not a good advertisement for Hongkong manufacturers.

Regarding the Information Bureau which is badly needed by overseas buyers, I would state that during my month's stay in this colony, I have contacted several organizations but none have rendered me any assistance except the foreign trade service department of the Chinese Manufacturers' Union who have endeavoured to assist me in every way. I think the manufacturers could co-operate much more with the Union and give them greater support.

On the question of setting up a Travel Bureau which is very essential to us who have so little time, this Bureau needs to work with travel agencies, hotel managements, etc., together with the Manufacturers' Union which is a vital department given scope in its activities towards the future Exhibitions.

A. C. JORDAN.

Trade Exhibition Hall

Sir, May I avail myself of your courtesy to express my views on "Letters to the Editor" which appeared in Hongkong Telegraph dated 27th instant.

I must voice my support of establishing a permanent Exhibition Hall or Trade Centre which would facilitate the overseas visitors who wish to make their purchases of merchandise in Hongkong.

I have recently read with interest some articles in various journals published in connection with the "Chinese Products" Exhibition. As Hongkong goods are getting known in all parts of the world and as competition is now increasing Hongkong needs greatly some trade centre. I must state that my experience in Hongkong has been that every disappointed manufacturer lacks any knowledge of marketing their goods for export. I have had numerous promises of samples and export prices from them but have not been able to obtain same; with few exceptions also samples received are not a good advertisement for Hongkong manufacturers.

Regarding the Information Bureau which is badly needed by overseas buyers, I would state that during my month's stay in this colony, I have contacted several organizations but none have rendered me any assistance except the foreign trade service department of the Chinese Manufacturers' Union who have endeavoured to assist me in every way. I think the manufacturers could co-operate much more with the Union and give them greater support.

On the question of setting up a Travel Bureau which is very essential to us who have so little time, this Bureau needs to work with travel agencies, hotel managements, etc., together with the Manufacturers' Union which is a vital department given scope in its activities towards the future Exhibitions.

A. C. JORDAN.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Sir, May I avail myself of your courtesy to express my views on "Letters to the Editor" which appeared in Hongkong Telegraph dated 27th instant.

I must voice my support of establishing a permanent Exhibition Hall or Trade Centre which would facilitate the overseas visitors who wish to make their purchases of merchandise in Hongkong.

I have recently read with interest some articles in various journals published in connection with the "Chinese Products" Exhibition. As Hongkong goods are getting known in all parts of the world and as competition is now increasing Hongkong needs greatly some trade centre. I must state that my experience in Hongkong has been that every disappointed manufacturer lacks any knowledge of marketing their goods for export. I have had numerous promises of samples and export prices from them but have not been able to obtain same; with few exceptions also samples received are not a good advertisement for Hongkong manufacturers.

Regarding the Information Bureau which is badly needed by overseas buyers, I would state that during my month's stay in this colony, I have contacted several organizations but none have rendered me any assistance except the foreign trade service department of the Chinese Manufacturers' Union who have endeavoured to assist me in every way. I think the manufacturers could co-operate much more with the Union and give them greater support.

On the question of setting up a Travel Bureau which is very essential to us who have so little time, this Bureau needs to work with travel agencies, hotel managements, etc., together with the Manufacturers' Union which is a vital department given scope in its activities towards the future Exhibitions.

A. C. JORDAN.

Trade Exhibition Hall

Sir, May I avail myself of your courtesy to express my views on "Letters to the Editor" which appeared in Hongkong Telegraph dated 27th instant.

I must voice my support of establishing a permanent Exhibition Hall or Trade Centre which would facilitate the overseas visitors who wish to make their purchases of merchandise in Hongkong.

I have recently read with interest some articles in various journals published in connection with the "Chinese Products" Exhibition. As Hongkong goods are getting known in all parts of the world and as competition is now increasing Hongkong needs greatly some trade centre. I must state that my experience in Hongkong has been that every disappointed manufacturer lacks any knowledge of marketing their goods for export. I have had numerous promises of samples and export prices from them but have not been able to obtain same; with few exceptions also samples received are not a good advertisement for Hongkong manufacturers.

Regarding the Information Bureau which is badly needed by overseas buyers, I would state that during my month's stay in this colony, I have contacted several organizations but none have rendered me any assistance except the foreign trade service department of the Chinese Manufacturers' Union who have endeavoured to assist me in every way. I think the manufacturers could co-operate much more with the Union and give them greater support.

On the question of setting up a Travel Bureau which is very essential to us who have so little time, this Bureau needs to work with travel agencies, hotel managements, etc., together with the Manufacturers' Union which is a vital department given scope in its activities towards the future Exhibitions.

A. C. JORDAN.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Sir, May I avail myself of your courtesy to express my views on "Letters to the Editor" which appeared in Hongkong Telegraph dated 27th instant.

I must voice my support of establishing a permanent Exhibition Hall or Trade Centre which would facilitate the overseas visitors who wish to make their purchases of merchandise in Hongkong.

I have recently read with interest some articles in various journals published in connection with the "Chinese Products" Exhibition. As Hongkong goods are getting known in all parts of the world and as competition is now increasing Hongkong needs greatly some trade centre. I must state that my experience in Hongkong has been that every disappointed manufacturer lacks any knowledge of marketing their goods for export. I have had numerous promises of samples and export prices from them but have not been able to obtain same; with few exceptions also samples received are not a good advertisement for Hongkong manufacturers.

Regarding the Information Bureau which is badly needed by overseas buyers, I would state that during my month's stay in this colony, I have contacted several organizations but none have rendered me any assistance except the foreign trade service department of the Chinese Manufacturers' Union who have endeavoured to assist me in every way. I think the manufacturers could co-operate much more with the Union and give them greater support.

On the question of setting up a Travel Bureau which is very essential to us who have so little time, this Bureau needs to work with travel agencies, hotel managements, etc., together with the Manufacturers' Union which is a vital department given scope in its activities towards the future Exhibitions.

A. C. JORDAN.

Surplus Property Scandals Again Rear Heads

Washington, Jan. 29.—The Philippine Finance Minister, Pio Pedrosa, today traced "all our political troubles last year" to the President's attempt to weed out of government all persons linked to surplus property scandals, which are again receiving wide publicity here.

"For political peace in the future, I think it would be a good thing that the whole matter of surplus property be brought to everyone's satisfaction and disposed of once and for all."

Mr Pedrosa said that the President's attempt to weed out of government all persons linked to surplus property scandals, which are again receiving wide publicity here.

He said that the President's attempt to weed out of government all persons linked to surplus property scandals, which are again receiving wide publicity here.

He said that the President's attempt to weed out of government all persons linked to surplus property scandals, which are again receiving wide publicity here.

He said that the President's attempt to weed out of government all persons linked to surplus property scandals, which are again receiving wide publicity here.

He said that the President's attempt to weed out of government all persons linked to surplus property scandals, which are again receiving wide publicity here.

He said that the President's attempt to weed out of government all persons linked to surplus property scandals, which are again receiving wide publicity here.

He said that the President's attempt to weed out of government all persons linked to surplus property scandals, which are again receiving wide publicity here.

He said that the President's attempt to weed out of government all persons linked to surplus property scandals, which are again receiving wide publicity here.

He said that the President's attempt to weed out of government all persons linked to surplus property scandals, which are again receiving wide publicity here.

He said that the President's attempt to weed out of government all persons linked to surplus property scandals, which are again receiving wide publicity here.

He said that the President's attempt to weed out of government all persons linked to surplus property scandals, which are again receiving wide publicity here.

He said that the President's attempt to weed out of government all persons linked to surplus property scandals, which are again receiving wide publicity here.

He said that the President's attempt to weed out of government all persons linked to surplus property scandals, which are again receiving wide publicity here.

He said that the President's attempt to weed out of government all persons linked to surplus property scandals, which are again receiving wide publicity here.

COMPROMISE BID ON JERUSALEM'S STATUS

Genova, Jan. 29.—The United Nations Trusteeship Council tomorrow will begin its task of drawing up a statute to internationalize Jerusalem, despite an announcement by both Israel and Jordan that they will ignore it.

The Council will act under instructions from the last General Assembly, which voted to place the entire holy city under UN administration.

Delegates probably will work without Russia, which voted for the Assembly resolution but has boycotted the Council's sixth session here.

The Council will first consider a proposal by the chairman, M. Roger Gervais of France, which aims at satisfying both Israel and Jordan and at the same time remain within the spirit of the Assembly resolution.

M. Gervais' project limits internationalization to holy places and areas of access to them.

Observers believe if some such proposal were accepted by the Council, Israel and Jordan, it might have a chance of approval by the General Assembly.

If the Council fails, it is expected that a special session of the General Assembly will be called in the spring to deal with the matter. The United Nations has no way of enforcing its decision.

After losing M. Gervais' proposal, the Council is expected to approve a resolution inviting Israel and Jordan to negotiate a settlement of the city.

M. Gervais' project limits internationalization to holy places and areas of access to them.

Observers believe if some such proposal were accepted by the Council, Israel and Jordan, it might have a chance of approval by the General Assembly.

If the Council fails, it is expected that a special session of the General Assembly will be called in the spring to deal with the matter. The United Nations has no way of enforcing its decision.

FOR THE BUSINESSMAN

the average	NEI guilders (per 100)	2
daily, or an overall production	Siam ticals (per 100)	2
increase of 50 percent over	Singapore (Straits)	2
1940.—United Press.	FIC plasmas (per 100)	1

on	NEI guilders (per 100)
er	Siam ticals (per 100)
	Singapore (Straits)
	FIC plasques (per 100)

Ingrid Bergman Annoyed

Rome, Jan. 29.—Rome police notified Associated Press photographer Mario Torrisi in Rome today that Ingrid Bergman, the actress, had lodged a complaint against him for taking her photograph in the street last Sunday.

Torrisi, an Italian member of the Rome staff of Associated Press, snapped the Swedish star when she left her apartment to walk to a corner news stand. He had been waiting nearly a month for the chance.

Torrisi was asked today to report to a police station near Miss Bergman's apartment.

The officer in charge told Miss Bergman complained that he had taken her picture in the street and asked her to stop after she took the picture.

Torrisi denied molesting the actress. The police said that they gave him a warning and that he should take the picture in the street.

BOOKED AT SALZBURG

Vienna, Jan. 29.—Police here today said that Ingrid Bergman, the Swedish actress, had been booked for a short stay in the city. She is expected to arrive here today.

Bergman, who has been in the city for several months, is expected to stay here for a short time. She is expected to arrive here today.

IMPORTANT DISCOVERY IN CAVE

London, Jan. 29.—Scientists have discovered the skeleton of a Neanderthal man in the Teikok Cave, in the foothills of the Chinese mountains in southern China.

The skeleton was found in a cave which was discovered in 1940. It was found in a cave which was discovered in 1940.

The skeleton was found in a cave which was discovered in 1940. It was found in a cave which was discovered in 1940.

The skeleton was found in a cave which was discovered in 1940. It was found in a cave which was discovered in 1940.

The skeleton was found in a cave which was discovered in 1940. It was found in a cave which was discovered in 1940.

Peace Returns To Calabria

Catanzaro, Italy, Jan. 29.—Peace returned tonight to Calabria. The battle of the two cities, Catanzaro and Reggio, to decide which should be the capital of the South Italian province, is over. Both have agreed to let Parliament settle the dispute.

Poignant "warriors" who over the week-end had rallied to the call "fight for the glory of Catanzaro" went quietly home tonight.

"It was a glorious and valiant fight," said one proud Catanzaro "Citizens Committee" member who went back to peacetime occupations.—Reuter.

"You can't help but admire Kingsley—super service to the last."

Colour Television

Forrest W. Killy, 27-year-old electrician, demonstrates an adapter he built for a few dollars so he can have colour television in his home. The device is a round platter with alternate patches of red, green and blue. Whirled at high speed in front of the TV viewing tube, the colours blend into a true picture, Killy says. And, he adds, "anybody can do it."

Rebel Action May Affect Status Of Dutch New Guinea

New York, Jan. 29.—The Netherlands' chances of retaining Dutch New Guinea have been enhanced by the success of "Turco" Westerling's defiance of Indonesian authority, according to diplomatic observers at The Hague, the New York Times said today.

The failure of Dutch New Guinea to be recognized by the United Nations has been a major factor in the Indonesian government's demand for the island. The Dutch government has been trying to maintain its control over the island.

The Dutch government has been trying to maintain its control over the island. The Indonesian government has been demanding the island's independence.

The Dutch government has been trying to maintain its control over the island. The Indonesian government has been demanding the island's independence.

The Dutch government has been trying to maintain its control over the island. The Indonesian government has been demanding the island's independence.

The Dutch government has been trying to maintain its control over the island. The Indonesian government has been demanding the island's independence.

The Dutch government has been trying to maintain its control over the island. The Indonesian government has been demanding the island's independence.

The Dutch government has been trying to maintain its control over the island. The Indonesian government has been demanding the island's independence.

The Dutch government has been trying to maintain its control over the island. The Indonesian government has been demanding the island's independence.

The Dutch government has been trying to maintain its control over the island. The Indonesian government has been demanding the island's independence.

The Dutch government has been trying to maintain its control over the island. The Indonesian government has been demanding the island's independence.

The Dutch government has been trying to maintain its control over the island. The Indonesian government has been demanding the island's independence.

The Dutch government has been trying to maintain its control over the island. The Indonesian government has been demanding the island's independence.

The Dutch government has been trying to maintain its control over the island. The Indonesian government has been demanding the island's independence.

The Dutch government has been trying to maintain its control over the island. The Indonesian government has been demanding the island's independence.

The Dutch government has been trying to maintain its control over the island. The Indonesian government has been demanding the island's independence.

The Dutch government has been trying to maintain its control over the island. The Indonesian government has been demanding the island's independence.

The Dutch government has been trying to maintain its control over the island. The Indonesian government has been demanding the island's independence.

The Dutch government has been trying to maintain its control over the island. The Indonesian government has been demanding the island's independence.

The Dutch government has been trying to maintain its control over the island. The Indonesian government has been demanding the island's independence.

The Dutch government has been trying to maintain its control over the island. The Indonesian government has been demanding the island's independence.

The Dutch government has been trying to maintain its control over the island. The Indonesian government has been demanding the island's independence.

Three-Power Secret Talks On Belgian Congo Uranium Ore

Washington, Jan. 29.—High American, British and Belgian officials begin secret talks here tomorrow on uranium ore, the indispensable raw material of atomic bombs. The United States has been getting nearly all of the rich uranium ores mined in the Belgian Congo since 1944.

Official secrecy surrounds the conferences, but at least three vital issues are likely to come up:

1. U.S. concern over security of uranium ore.

2. The Belgian Congo's status as a free state.

3. The Belgian Congo's status as a free state.

The Belgian Congo's status as a free state.

The Belgian Congo's status as a free state.

The Belgian Congo's status as a free state.

The Belgian Congo's status as a free state.

The Belgian Congo's status as a free state.

The Belgian Congo's status as a free state.

The Belgian Congo's status as a free state.

The Belgian Congo's status as a free state.

The Belgian Congo's status as a free state.

The Belgian Congo's status as a free state.

The Belgian Congo's status as a free state.

The Belgian Congo's status as a free state.

The Belgian Congo's status as a free state.

The Belgian Congo's status as a free state.

The Belgian Congo's status as a free state.

The Belgian Congo's status as a free state.

The Belgian Congo's status as a free state.

The Belgian Congo's status as a free state.

The Belgian Congo's status as a free state.

The Belgian Congo's status as a free state.

The Belgian Congo's status as a free state.

The Belgian Congo's status as a free state.

The Belgian Congo's status as a free state.

The Belgian Congo's status as a free state.

MORE JEWEL ROBBERY ARRESTS

Marseilles, Jan. 29.—The French police, probing the theft of £200,000 worth of jewellery from the Aga Khan and his Begum last August, made another arrest tonight.

Nice police, reporting that they were holding 20-year-old Urban Gaudin on suspicion of complicity in the robbery, said: "We found a small arsenal at his house, including Tommy guns, rifles and revolvers."

Colonel Lindsay George Watson, 50-year-old French-born son of a Scotsman, and Fey Fenchin, 40, are held in Marseilles awaiting trial.

Only about half of the Begum Aga Khan's jewels were in the bundle dumped outside a police station here three nights ago. Jewellers going over the recovered treasures reported tonight:

They estimated the value of the recovered jewels to be about £200,000. The total theft amounted to £250,000.

A Paris jeweller, who sold most of the stolen jewellery to the Aga Khan and his wife, arrived here yesterday to take part in the inquiry. Reuter.

The French police, probing the theft of £200,000 worth of jewellery from the Aga Khan and his Begum last August, made another arrest tonight.

Nice police, reporting that they were holding 20-year-old Urban Gaudin on suspicion of complicity in the robbery, said: "We found a small arsenal at his house, including Tommy guns, rifles and revolvers."

Colonel Lindsay George Watson, 50-year-old French-born son of a Scotsman, and Fey Fenchin, 40, are held in Marseilles awaiting trial.

Only about half of the Begum Aga Khan's jewels were in the bundle dumped outside a police station here three nights ago. Jewellers going over the recovered treasures reported tonight:

They estimated the value of the recovered jewels to be about £200,000. The total theft amounted to £250,000.

A Paris jeweller, who sold most of the stolen jewellery to the Aga Khan and his wife, arrived here yesterday to take part in the inquiry. Reuter.

The French police, probing the theft of £200,000 worth of jewellery from the Aga Khan and his Begum last August, made another arrest tonight.

Nice police, reporting that they were holding 20-year-old Urban Gaudin on suspicion of complicity in the robbery, said: "We found a small arsenal at his house, including Tommy guns, rifles and revolvers."

Colonel Lindsay George Watson, 50-year-old French-born son of a Scotsman, and Fey Fenchin, 40, are held in Marseilles awaiting trial.

Only about half of the Begum Aga Khan's jewels were in the bundle dumped outside a police station here three nights ago. Jewellers going over the recovered treasures reported tonight:

They estimated the value of the recovered jewels to be about £200,000. The total theft amounted to £250,000.

A Paris jeweller, who sold most of the stolen jewellery to the Aga Khan and his wife, arrived here yesterday to take part in the inquiry. Reuter.

The French police, probing the theft of £200,000 worth of jewellery from the Aga Khan and his Begum last August, made another arrest tonight.

Nice police, reporting that they were holding 20-year-old Urban Gaudin on suspicion of complicity in the robbery, said: "We found a small arsenal at his house, including Tommy guns, rifles and revolvers."

Colonel Lindsay George Watson, 50-year-old French-born son of a Scotsman, and Fey Fenchin, 40, are held in Marseilles awaiting trial.

Only about half of the Begum Aga Khan's jewels were in the bundle dumped outside a police station here three nights ago. Jewellers going over the recovered treasures reported tonight:

They estimated the value of the recovered jewels to be about £200,000. The total theft amounted to £250,000.

A Paris jeweller, who sold most of the stolen jewellery to the Aga Khan and his wife, arrived here yesterday to take part in the inquiry. Reuter.

The French police, probing the theft of £200,000 worth of jewellery from the Aga Khan and his Begum last August, made another arrest tonight.

Nice police, reporting that they were holding 20-year-old Urban Gaudin on suspicion of complicity in the robbery, said: "We found a small arsenal at his house, including Tommy guns, rifles and revolvers."

Colonel Lindsay George Watson, 50-year-old French-born son of a Scotsman, and Fey Fenchin, 40, are held in Marseilles awaiting trial.

GENETICS RESEARCH

He said that over 14,000 prospective mothers, in Hiroshima, Nagasaki and 1,000 in Kurashiki, were now being followed up by the AHC's genetics research programme.

About 3,000 new-born babies in Hiroshima, Nagasaki and Kurashiki, and 1,000 in Kurashiki, were now being followed up by the AHC's genetics research programme.

About 3,000 new-born babies in Hiroshima, Nagasaki and Kurashiki, and 1,000 in Kurashiki, were now being followed up by the AHC's genetics research programme.

About 3,000 new-born babies in Hiroshima, Nagasaki and Kurashiki, and 1,000 in Kurashiki, were now being followed up by the AHC's genetics research programme.

About 3,000 new-born babies in Hiroshima, Nagasaki and Kurashiki, and 1,000 in Kurashiki, were now being followed up by the AHC's genetics research programme.

About 3,000 new-born babies in Hiroshima, Nagasaki and Kurashiki, and 1,000 in Kurashiki, were now being followed up by the AHC's genetics research programme.

About 3,000 new-born babies in Hiroshima, Nagasaki and Kurashiki, and 1,000 in Kurashiki, were now being followed up by the AHC's genetics research programme.

About 3,000 new-born babies in Hiroshima, Nagasaki and Kurashiki, and 1,000 in Kurashiki, were now being followed up by the AHC's genetics research programme.

About 3,000 new-born babies in Hiroshima, Nagasaki and Kurashiki, and 1,000 in Kurashiki, were now being followed up by the AHC's genetics research programme.

About 3,000 new-born babies in Hiroshima, Nagasaki and Kurashiki, and 1,000 in Kurashiki, were now being followed up by the AHC's genetics research programme.

About 3,000 new-born babies in Hiroshima, Nagasaki and Kurashiki, and 1,000 in Kurashiki, were now being followed up by the AHC's genetics research programme.

About 3,000 new-born babies in Hiroshima, Nagasaki and Kurashiki, and 1,000 in Kurashiki, were now being followed up by the AHC's genetics research programme.

About 3,000 new-born babies in Hiroshima, Nagasaki and Kurashiki, and 1,000 in Kurashiki, were now being followed up by the AHC's genetics research programme.

About 3,000 new-born babies in Hiroshima, Nagasaki and Kurashiki, and 1,000 in Kurashiki, were now being followed up by the AHC's genetics research programme.

About 3,000 new-born babies in Hiroshima, Nagasaki and Kurashiki, and 1,000 in Kurashiki, were now being followed up by the AHC's genetics research programme.

About 3,000 new-born babies in Hiroshima, Nagasaki and Kurashiki, and 1,000 in Kurashiki, were now being followed up by the AHC's genetics research programme.

About 3,000 new-born babies in Hiroshima, Nagasaki and Kurashiki, and 1,000 in Kurashiki, were now being followed up by the AHC's genetics research programme.

About 3,000 new-born babies in Hiroshima, Nagasaki and Kurashiki, and 1,000 in Kurashiki, were now being followed up by the AHC's genetics research programme.

About 3,000 new-born babies in Hiroshima, Nagasaki and Kurashiki, and 1,000 in Kurashiki, were now being followed up by the AHC's genetics research programme.

About 3,000 new-born babies in Hiroshima, Nagasaki and Kurashiki, and 1,000 in Kurashiki, were now being followed up by the AHC's genetics research programme.

About 3,000 new-born babies in Hiroshima, Nagasaki and Kurashiki, and 1,000 in Kurashiki, were now being followed up by the AHC's genetics research programme.

About 3,000 new-born babies in Hiroshima, Nagasaki and Kurashiki, and 1,000 in Kurashiki, were now being followed up by the AHC's genetics research programme.

About 3,000 new-born babies in Hiroshima, Nagasaki and Kurashiki, and 1,000 in Kurashiki, were now being followed up by the AHC's genetics research programme.

About 3,000 new-born babies in Hiroshima, Nagasaki and Kurashiki, and 1,000 in Kurashiki, were now being followed up by the AHC's genetics research programme.

About 3,000 new-born babies in Hiroshima, Nagasaki and Kurashiki, and 1,000 in Kurashiki, were now being followed up by the AHC's genetics research programme.

About 3,000 new-born babies in Hiroshima, Nagasaki and Kurashiki, and 1,000 in Kurashiki, were now being followed up by the AHC's genetics research programme.

POCKET CARTOON

"The wife couldn't come - she's at home with a cold."

London Express Service.

STAR

Phone 58335

17 Hankow Road, Kowloon

— FINAL SHOWING —

2.30, 5.10, 7.20 & 9.30

DANNY'S LATEST IS HIS GREATEST!

It's Danny Ray King Khan

Starring at his home

with the best

and the best

and the best

and the best

and the best

and the best

and the best

and the best

and the best

and the best

and the best

and the best

and the best

and the best

and the best

and the best

and the best

and the best

and the best

and the best

and the best

and the best

and the best

and the best

and the best

and the best

and the best

and the best

and the best

and the best

and the best

and the best

and the best

and the best

and the best

and the best

and the best

and the best

and the best

and the best

and the best

and the best

and the best

and the best

and the best

and the best

and the best

and the best

and the best

and the best

and the best

and the best

and the best

and the best

and the best

and the best

and the best

and the best

and the best

and the best

and the best

and the best

and the best

and the best

and the best

and the best

and the best

and the best

and the best

and the best

and the best

and the best

and the best

and the best

and the best

and the best